PART I.

Constitution.

THE MAGISTRATE.

1.—(1) On each Island a Native Magistrate shall be appointed, whose duties will include the administration of the Native Laws and Regulations, and the supervision of the Island Police, prisoners and prisons.

(2) The Magistrate shall decide, according to the law, all matters brought before him.

THE SCRIBE.

2.—(1) On each Island a Scribe shall be appointed whose duty it shall be to keep all Native Government books and perform all necessary clerical work ; he shall also keep all public money and be held responsible for the same. In the latter duty he shall be assisted by the Magistrate and Chief Kaubure.

(2) The Scribe shall be answerable for all fines collected, and shall give a numbered receipt for same in every case.

(3) The Scribe shall forward each month a true copy of the Court Book, the Cash Book, and the Birth, Death, and Marriage Registers for the preceding month to the District Officer.

THE CHIEF OF KAUBURE.

3. In each Island a Chief Kaubure shall be appointed, who, in conjunction with the High Chief, where there is one, and the Native Magistrate, shall be responsible for the good order and cleanliness of the Island ; he shall also assist the Native Magistrate with his advice in the administration of the Native Rules, Laws, and Regulations.

THE KAUBURE.

4. In each village in each Island one or two Kaubure, according to population, shall be appointed by election to represent the interests of each village, and to assist the Native Magistrate and Chief Kaubure in the administration of the Native Rules, Laws, and Regulations. The members of Kaubure shall further be held responsible for the good order and cleanliness of the villages.

SUBJECT TO CONFIRMATION.

5. The above appointments shall be made on the recommendation of the District Officers concerned subject to approval by the Resident Commissioner.

ISLAND POLICE.

6.—(1) In each village of each Island one or more policemen, according to population, shall be appointed who shall keep order in the villages, assist the Kaubure, and act as Prison Warders in rotation.

(2) Chief of Police.—A Chief of Police shall be appointed in each Island who shall supervise the Island Police. He shall be responsible for the discipline, general efficiency, and cleanliness of the Island Police.

(3) A Gaoler shall be appointed on each Island whose duty it shall be to care for all male prisoners, and who shall be held responsible for the cleanliness of such prisoners and of his gaol.

(4) A Prison Wardress shall be appointed on each Island whose duty it shall be to care for all female prisoners, and to supervise their work, and who shall be held responsible for the cleanliness of such prisoners and of the female gaol.

ISLAND CHEST.

7.—(1) There shall be an Island Chest on every Island. The Island Chest shall consist of a sum of money, the amount of which shall be determined by the Protectorate Estimates, which shall be allocated to each Island annually by the Resident Commissioner or his representative.

(2) All fines shall be paid into the Island Chest and accounted for in the Cash Book, and shall be collected by the District Officer as opportunity occurs.

(3) The Magistrate, Chief Kaubure, Scribe, Policemen, Prison Warder, and Wardress, and Hospital Orderlies shall be paid regular salaries every six months from the Island Chest, namely, on the 30th of June and the 31st of December of each year.

(4) The Scribe shall keep account of all moneys or property received, and of all salaries or other disbursements made from the Island Chest.

MONTHLY MEETINGS.

8.—(1) A Meeting of the Kaubure of every Island with the Magistrate and Scribe, shall be held at the principal village of the Island on the first Wednesday of each month. At these Meetings a Court shall first be held by the Magistrate according to Rule 9 hereof, the Magistrate presiding, when all breaches of Laws, Rules, and Regulations shall be heard. This Court shall also hear and advise in all native land disputes.

(2) After this Court the Meeting of the Kaubure shall take place.

(3) The Meeting shall receive reports and discuss the general conduct and behaviour of the people, and shall hear complaints of neglect of duty on the part of the Kaubure and Policemen and may suspend them from Office pending the visit of the Resident Commissioner or District Officer. The Chief Kaubure cannot be so suspended.

(4) The appointment of new Kaubure shall not be confirmed until approved by the Resident Commissioner, or by the District Officer on his behalf.

(5) The Meeting shall also make rules for the keeping clean of villages, roads, and cemeteries.

(6) No non-natives, except Government Officials, shall be allowed to attend Meetings of the Native Government.

THE HOLDING OF COURTS.

9.—(1) The Magistrate, assisted by the Kaubure, shall hold a monthly Court on the first Wednesday of each month, and, on the more populous or larger Islands, may hold a mid-monthly Court when necessary, for minor cases only.

(2) The Magistrate may, if he considers it advisable, call not more than six Kaubure, including the Chief Kaubure if possible, to assist him in inquiring into a case.

(3) In every case of supposed murder the Magistrate shall be assisted in the hearing by at least twelve Kaubure. Should there not be twelve Kaubure available on the Island, or should it appear advisable that any of the existing Kaubure should not sit in hearing, the balance shall be made up of Natives of good repute who shall be deemed Kaubure for the hearing of such case. The above Court shall constitute the preliminary inquiry, or inquest, but the accused shall not be brought to final trial except in the presence of the Resident Commissioner, or any Officer of the Protectorate deputed by him to represent him at such trial.

(4) The Magistrate shall give the decision in every case and he is responsible that the sentence imposed is in accordance with the law.

(5) No criminal case shall be heard in the absence of the person charged.

(6) The Police shall see that the complainant, defendant, and witnesses attend together before the Magistrate.

(7) The Magistrate shall first hear what the complainant, the Police, and witnesses have to say. He shall then hear the person charged with any further witnesses which the accused person may call.

(8) The Magistrate may question the witnesses as he thinks proper.

(9) Having heard all the evidence and the person charged the Magistrate shall give his decision after due consultation with the Kaubure.

ABSENCE OF MAGISTRATE.

10. In the event of the absence of the Native Magistrate from illness or other unavoidable cause his duties shall, for the time being, be discharged by the Chief Kaubure.

POWERS OF A DISTRICT OFFICER.

11. The District Officer shall be empowered, on behalf of the Resident Commissioner, to review any sentence imposed by the Native Court, and may alter, amend, or otherwise adjust the punishment in accordance with these laws.

PLANTING OF COCONUTS.

12.—(1) It is the duty of the Kaubure to see that all suitable waste lands are planted up in coconuts.

(2) It is also the duty of the Kaubure to see that any land which can be reclaimed is brought into use and planted in coconuts.

(3) Walls and embankments for keeping out the sea shall be kept in repair.

SCHOOLS.

13. It is the duty of the Kaubure to see that all able bodied children attend school between the ages of seven and sixteen years.
