CANBERRA, A.C.T.

Dear Mr Sands,

Herewith the article by Nancy Viviani, which you kindly offered to send to Mr Ing. Needless to say it disclosed itself immediately you left.

I have written to Ing (curious name, must be of Pictish origin?) and explained its significance for Mr Vinelott.

If we have to go (and I devoutly hope that we don't) I have asked Mr Ing to let you or me know the date on which I have to give evidence as soon as it is settled. At present it is all rather in the air.

Once we know we can set about booking passages and stop-over accommodation. I gather that we should aim to arrive in London about 10 days before the performance.

Yours sincerely,

H.E. Maude.
