Dear Professor Maude,

1. Please refer to your letter of 16 November to Roy Price, which you asked me to forward to him in London.
2. The Foreign and Commonwealth Office have now written to say that the Treasury Solicitors would be grateful to have as complete an idea as possible, in the form of an informal statement, of your financial requirements should you and your wife travel to the United Kingdom for the Royalty Action. The Treasury Solicitors do not expect there to be any difficulty over meeting the financial requirements, but need to have a breakdown before they finally agree to doing so.
3. I should be grateful, therefore, if you would kindly draw up an informal statement accordingly, as soon as is convenient to you, for me to forward to Roy Price.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Sands
