We are now half way through semester one. We have student representatives that sit on various committees within the School (refer to the list in this newsletter). This important role involves attending monthly meetings and providing that valuable link between the programs and students. It is an opportunity for the representatives to provide feedback and information from a student perspective and can help shape the future of the programs.

Remember if you have queries relating to EMS administration (e.g. insurance forms) or any academic program related queries (you may have previously sent to me) please email animalvetsci@adelaide.edu.au (rather than emailing any individual staff members). For any course specific enquires please email the Course Co-ordinator directly. Please note if you have an academic related EMS question, email Dr Wendy Hamood (wendy.hamood@adelaide.edu.au) or an urgent EMS query or notification, call Wendy on 0459 836 107.

The School's Recognition Evening was held on Monday 28th April, where we recognised a number of students in the Bachelor of Science (Animal Science), Bachelor of Science (Veterinary Bioscience), Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and Honours programs for their efforts in 2013. Congratulations to all winners.

Things can change from year to year so it is important that each year students complete the Student Information and Safety Declaration (click here or on the full link below). This was emailed to all students on 17th April and again on 12th May. If you have not completed it yet can you please log in to do so as a matter of urgency?

NEWS FROM THE APO

Please be reminded that if you are absent from a tutorial or practical, you must first inform the relevant Course Co-ordinator, obtain supporting documentation (e.g. doctors certificate), complete an Allowed Leave of Absence form (www.sciences.adelaide.edu.au/current-students/forms/), ask the Course Co-ordinator to sign it, and then you drop the completed form and documentation into the Williams Building for processing.

Exams will soon be upon us and for first year students please remember everyone learns differently so find a way that suits you and make a plan. Plan a study schedule and ensure you allow yourself enough time in the weeks leading up to the exam for revision. While some students may find it beneficial to study in groups others prefer to study alone. Whichever method you use, consider reviewing past exam papers, reviewing lecture and tutorial materials, seek support if you need it and don't be afraid to direct any queries to your lecturers. They are here to help you and want you to succeed.

All the best for the rest of Semester 1.

RACSUC Student Association

Hi everybody, hope you all had an enjoyable break and got plenty of rest!

First up, we are excited to welcome 4 new members to the RACSUC committee; Tim Fulton, Daniel Colella, Angus Misan and Chris Smith. They are all really enthusiastic to get started, and will make a great contribution to the committee! Voting was very close, and we hope that all unsuccessful candidates will reapply at the change of committee later this year.

We were delighted to see many of you at the Willaston Pub Night after College Cup at the end of last term. The event was a great success, and we are hoping to make it a reoccurring event. The Willaston have been highly supportive and put on great drink specials for the evening. We look forward to seeing you all at the next one! Also keep your ears open for the Re-O'Week schedule, which plans are already well underway for.

Finally, we would like to formally announce that the 2015 Roseworthy O'Week will be held in the official University of Adelaide Orientation Week, being the week before uni goes back (23rd – 27th February 2015). We are really excited about this change as it will allow greater participation of older years in events, and give us many more options for exciting new events.

Roseworthy
Agricultural Campus

Student Union Council

We hope that you can all mark this change in your diaries, and please feel free to pass any event suggestions onto the RACSUC committee.

Until next time,
Your RACSUC Committee

AVSA Student Association

Salutations. AVSA here...

Well term one has already come to an end, and what a frantic, eventful six weeks it has been. AVSA has been busy in the first term not only hosting our annual Barn Dance, but for the first time this year we also held the AVSA Meet and Greet.

The Meet and Greet was aimed at second year students, whose full time life on campus officially began this year. Starting with donut eating, and ending in an obstacle course covered in egg, soap, water and feathers, the night was a huge success. Thank-you to all the second years who participated and all those who came out to watch.

Barn Dance this year had a little bit of a change up. Our usual caller, Peter Heath, showed our students how to move, but the highlight for everyone was the mechanical bull. My effort of a dismal 15 seconds was definitely put to shame by many students who almost made the minute mark. Special thanks to Tracey from the AUU for helping selling tickets for this event.

Stay tuned for more updates via the AVSA facebook page and university email, and we look forward to seeing you all at AVSA's next event.

Quiz Night

This year quiz night will be held at St. Marks College, North Adelaide on Sat the 31st of May. It will be held in conjunction with the 6th year Africa trip students to support the Nsikazi project. Starts at 7:30pm. Tables of 10-12.

The Nsikazi project works to manage animals where wildlife and livestock meet, particularly around the Kruger National Park area, to ensure both populations of animals are healthy.

This includes (but not limited to)

- General veterinary screening for foot and mouth disease
- 'dipping' animals to prevent parasites,
- vaccinate against rabies (both livestock and community dogs) and,
- protect against tuberculosis.

All this to ensure a healthy animal population, and in turn a healthier human population!

Ticket sales start this week down with Tracey at the AUU and outside the vet building on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Cost: $10 for AVSA members and $15 for all non-members.

Ticket Sales: Tickets can be bought from Tracey at the AUU office every-day when she is down there or from the AVSA website, people can also keep an eye out for AVSA members selling tickets a couple of lunch times this week up at the Vet building.

Tables: All staff and students welcome to get a table together and come support the cause. However it is first in best dressed and therefore a good idea for people to get there whole table of 10 or 12 together asap to pay as a whole table and guarantee their place.

Theme: The theme of the night is Africa, however all tables are encouraged to choose their own theme for their table to dress up (prizes for best dressed table-as always!)

The University of Adelaide Equine Special Interest Group

Hey Readers,

This year we have had a few of our regular yearly events proceed without fault! This includes the Castration Clinic run by Elizabeth Herbert at the Adelaide Plains Equine Clinic and our fantastic Day At the Races, in conjunction with the South Australian Jockey Club.

On Saturday the 5th of April we had our first Castration Clinic of the year, with the fantastic Elizabeth Herbert showing us the ropes of how to anesthetize a horse and castrate it without a hitch. All students who attended had a great day, and everyone got to have a crack at the procedure. A big thanks to the team at the Adelaide Plains Equine Clinic for showing us the go, and being patient with all those involved .

The second major event of the year was the Day At the Races run down at Morphettville Race Course. The day started off with a tour of the training facilities, including a view of the water walker and a talk by a leading South Australian horse trainer (who coincidentally had a horse win the Darby later that afternoon, pretty convenient!!). We then moved over to the Morphettville Equine Clinic and had a tour of the facilities there, along with a chat with some of the equine vets, which was insightful. The afternoon was then frock-up time, as the ladies put on their best attire and the boys tried to scrub up to standard in order to attend the races for the day. All in all it was a very good day, and a big thanks to Allie Brown for being the event organizer along with the SAJC, and the Morphettville Equine Clinic for all their help it was fantastic.

Finally, we have a few up and coming/ continuing events that we are holding; Lunchtime Talks on the 20th of May we will be holding a talk by Dr Darien Feary on Colloid Fluid Therapy in horses, please come along and keep your ears open for more details on future talks. Endurance Rides, there have already been a few of these one attended on the 10th/11th of May, and they are a great opportunity to develop your TPR skills and meet some really nice equine minded people. There are some up coming rides and the opportunity can't be missed to try and listen to as many hearts as possible and try and pick up those trick murmurs. Thanks to the guys at the South Australian Endurance Ride Association for having us along.

If anyone has any quires or would like further information on any of the events please don't hesitate to contact me on

Adelaide Wildlife Appreciation Group

AWAG has kicked off the new year with a flying start. We have already hosted a variety of awesome events this term, including a movie night, field trip to the Adelaide Koala and Wildlife Hospital, a cupcake decorating night, a student presentation night (EMS placement ideas), and of course the launch of our new "Wildlife Webinar Series". Be sure to check out our 2014 Event Calendar for more exciting upcoming events!

Movie Night

The AWAG movie night screening of Blackfish was a fantastic success and a great way to start off the new year! More than 50 students turned up to watch the thought provoking film, which sparked a lot of discussion about the topic of animals kept in captivity and where the line should be drawn. Despite the temperature drop as the night progressed, everyone seemed to have a great time with drinks and nibbles under the stars. The raffle was also drawn on the night, congratulations to all of the lucky winners.

Webinars

In an action packed first half of semester 1, AWAG launched the 'Wildlife Webinar Series' that ran for three weeks and provided staff and students the opportunity to tune into an online wildlife lecture on a weeknight evening. This inaugural series allowed AWAG to connect Roseworthy staff and students with veterinarians and researchers around Australia to learn about unique and important wildlife topics, with all registration money to be donated to the organisation of the presenter's choice.

Webinar 1: Dr Jennifer Lavers - Plastic Pollution in Seabirds

Webinar 2: Dr Rob Jones - Shark Reproduction and Artificial Insemination

Webinar 3: Dr Duan March - Sea Turtles

Adelaide Koala & Wildlife Hospital Field Trip

On Tuesday the 15th of April, AWAG hosted its first field trip for 2014. Thirty enthusiastic students met at the Adelaide Koala and Wildlife Hospital (AKWH) for a unique opportunity exclusively for AWAG members. AWAG was privileged enough to have our very own guided tour of the hospital and care facilities by no other than Rae Campbell, the founder of AKWH. Students were then taken to the education centre in the back of the hospital where Mrs.

Campbell gave a comprehensive presentation covering the history of koala populations in South Australia, important koala physiological and anatomical differentiations, basic handling of injured koalas, rescue techniques, legislation and laws in SA regarding koalas, and finally koala care. At the end of the session, AWAG was pleased to present a $100 gift to the Adelaide Koala and Wildlife Hospital to aid in the rehabilitation of Adelaide's fauna. AWAG would like to thank Rae Campbell and Alex Barrow for their time on the day, as well as all the other volunteers working at the AKWH for their magnificent work.

The Adelaide Animal Behaviour Special Interest Group

Greetings from the Adelaide Animal Behaviour Special Interest Group (AABSIG). As you may know, AABSIG is a student group comprising Animal Science, Veterinary Bioscience, and Doctor of Veterinary Medicine students. We share a common interest in learning more about animal behaviour in all species: companion animals, production animals, birds, natives and exotic wildlife.

A belated welcome to our new committee for 2014:

President: Katrine Milne

Vice President: Faustina Niap

Secretary: Magda Stern

Treasurer: Tina Blom

Sponsorship: Madeleine Reichstein

Committee members:

Nicolle Symonds (founder of AABSIG)

Lucy Gilchrist

Natasha Leske

Alex Bullen

Upcoming events – Save the date!

Wednesday 21st May from 6:30pm:

Our Gold Sponsors: Adelaide Veterinary Behaviour Services are presenting a talk on cat behaviour in the Boardroom at the North Terrace Campus clubrooms. This event is free for AABSIG members, and $2 for non-members. A light supper and soft drinks will be provided. Please register on our Facebook page if you are coming so we can coordinate car-pooling from Roseworthy campus, as well as catering.

Wednesday 4th June from 6:00pm:

Dr Robert Holmes from Animal Behaviour Clinics in Melbourne is presenting a talk on how the emotional lives of dogs affects their welfare and behaviour. Venue: Roseworthy campus. Watch our Facebook page for further details.

Thursday 11th September from 12noon: Police dog Lunch and learn:

Senior Constable Andrew Ludgate and police dog Jack are talking about the bond between a police dog and their handler, as well as how police dogs are selected and trained. Venue: Richardson lecture theatre.

Events we are organising for later in the year:

- Our very own Dr Susan Hazel is presenting a lunchtime talk about debunking the dominance myth in dogs – date to be confirmed.
- Due to popular demand, our clicker training workshop returns in Semester 2 – this workshop was a hit last year and promised to be just as exciting this year. Details will be advertised closer to time
- A Saturday workshop with BEZA (Behavioural enrichment for zoo animals) who provide environmental enrichment for captive wildlife.
- A wildlife talk by the RSPCA behaviourist.

We look forward to an exciting year of learning about behaviour from some really tremendous people. Hope to see you at our events!

Katrine Milne

2014 AABSIG president

National servicemen's plaque unveiled at Roseworthy

A group of Roseworthy Old Collegians Association national servicemen have organised a commemorative plaque for former students who were conscripted for military service from 1964 to 1971.

The plaque was unveiled by Professor Kym Abbott, Head of the University of Adelaide's School of Veterinary and Animal Sciences on 22 March in the Roseworthy College Hall to recognise past Roseworthy Agricultural College students who were conscripted into National Service under the 1964 National Service Act.

Represented on the day were national servicemen, Roseworthy Old Collegians Association (ROCA) and the University, with speeches from past national servicemen Dick Turnbull and Peter Winter.

ROCA has a proud tradition of commemorating the military service of ex students who served their country in time of war. Members are currently working on updating the honour roll in the Roseworthy Chapel with the names of alumni who served in the armed forces since World War II.

Don't let this be you!

If you're starting to feel stressed and need information such as.....

Study techniques
Exam preparation tips
Strategies to tackle different styles of exams
Tips to manage exam anxiety
Time management
Procrastination

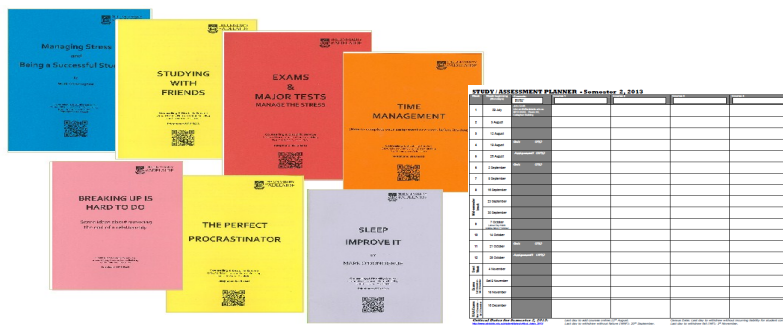

...then the Student Support and Disability Advisor may be able to help you. Appointments are free and confidential to all students.

Appointments can be booked by contacting Rebecca Dunbar at the Student Services front counter. Sally is available for appointments on Monday, Thursday and Fridays.

Sally Polkinghorne is located in the Roseworthy College Hall (Main Building) – room G5a. If you have an appointment with Sally please present to the administration staff at the main front counter of the Roseworthy College Hall.

Self-Help

Find these Self-Help booklets, Semester Assessment planner and more on display outside the Student Services Office in Roseworthy College Hall (Main Building).

Study Tips

- Managing Stress and being a Successful Student - a certain amount of stress is an inevitable and a useful part of studying. However, if students are too stressed, they cannot study effectively.
- The Perfect Procrastinator - Procrastination is not just a simple problem of time management. How can you avoid it?
- Effortless Exams - Managing Exam Stress - Test-taking anxiety or stress is very common among university students, so how do you manage it?
- Time Management - Managing our use of time is a skill that can also be learned and developed in order to promote balance in our lives.
- Study Tips for succeeding at University - Starting University is often accompanied by many lifestyle changes. So how can you change the way you study to make the most of it?
- Getting back on the study track - Sometimes students find that the focus of their lives has shifted away from study and that they have fallen behind and want to refocus. Here are 10 simple tips to help get back on track with study.

Wellbeing

- Sleep - improve it! - Rest and sleep can be achieved and organised in many ways.
- Anxiety and Panic Attacks - anxiety can interfere with every day life, making life less enjoyable. The good news is that there are a number of ways of getting over such anxiety so it stops being a problem.
- Coping with Depression - Depression can have a significant impact on your life. If you are feeling overwhelmed, or are thinking about hurting yourself, it is important to seek help.
- Increasing your ZZZ's - Like exercise and good nutrition, adequate sleep is essential to health and peak performance.
- Coping with traumatic incidents - Most people involved in a traumatic incident experience some kind of emotional reaction. Although each person's experience is different, there are many common responses that you may experience.
- Coping with grief and loss - Grief is a human response to significant personal change or loss. Despite being natural this does not mean that grief is easy to cope with.

Grant amounts vary depending on need, and availability of funds. Please contact Student Care on 8313 5430 for further information.

Maths Learning Centre support for statistics

Maths Learning Centre (MLC)

The Maths Learning Centre exists to help all students succeed at learning maths and statistics at the University of Adelaide. At North Terrace, the Drop-In Centre is open 10am – 4pm Mon to Fri during teaching weeks, SWOT and Exams. Feel free to drop in to talk about learning maths. Also check out the online resources at www.adelaide.edu.au/mathlearning

MLC at Roseworthy every second Wednesday!

The MLC coordinator David Butler is now at Roseworthy Campus every second Wednesday. You can drop in to talk about anything mathematical relating to your coursework from 8-9am, 12-1pm and 4-4:30pm.

Upcoming Sessions: 28 May & 11 Jun.

Discussing statistics for research students

If you want to discuss statistics relating to a research degree, please email mathslearning@adelaide.edu.au to make an appointment and David can meet you on the days he is at Roseworthy between his drop-in sessions. Note that he is not a statistician, so he can't analyse your data for you, but he can give general advice about what stats procedures might be the most appropriate for your research and data.

Exams

You are required to bring with you to the exam venue:

- your student ID (or other photo identification)
- reasonable supplies of all required writing materials, erasers, etc.

Materials permitted:

- a small purse or wallet, including keys, money, ID & credit cards
- one clear bottle of clear water, up to 1 litre in size (water is available at the venue)
- a closed bag stored under your seat
- any materials specified by the examiner, as set out in the rubric of the examination paper

Materials NOT to be removed:

You must not remove from the venue any materials issued for use in the examination, or any copies of such materials. All such materials remain the property of the University, whether the materials were actually used or not. These includes scripts, blank answer books, question papers and drawing or scribble paper.

Materials not permitted, unless specified by the examiner, as set out in the rubric of the examination paper:

You must not bring into the examination venue any material which enables, or has the potential to enable, you or others to cheat or to gain an unfair academic advantage. Examples of materials which are not permitted include, but are not limited to:

Staff vs Student—Cricket 20/20 Big Bash

Played at the Roseworthy Oval on Thursday 20th March 2014.

Overview by the legendary
Wayne Boardman

The kit had arrived, the pitch marked out and rolled, the boundary cones placed and the staff adjourned for the pep talk in the stadium changing rooms of the Roseworthy College oval. Not so much a pep talk but an opportunity to put on Mitchell Johnson handlebar moustaches to intimidate the students and hopefully signal as it did in the Ashes series that we meant business. Of course this act of bravado was completely ruined by the mysteriously mustachioed staffers standing together singing the staff song, penned by that well known lyricist Dr Darren Trott. "C'mon Staffies, c'mon", that catchy chart topping ditty from the late 70's rendered the students both perplexed and amused. (Lyrics in the appendix)

Bec and Christine took some photos to highlight the cricketing prowess of the staff team which included notable personalities, Charles Caraguel (Craggers), Ryan O'Handley (O'Handers), Adam O'Connell (Tubes), Michael Cathcart (Cathers), Darren Trott (Trotters), Sam Abraham (Abers), Viabhav Gole (Golars), Richard Turtill (Turters), David Purdie (Purders), Adrian Hines (Hiners) and captain Wayne Boardman (Boarders). The student team ably led by James Young, of recent Freeling CC fame, having just competed on Adelaide Oval, included several youthful club players with some excellent cricketing pedigree. Whereas the staff were all a bunch of has-beens or wannabe has-beens with sore knees, tight hamstrings and various levels of myopia and presbyopia.

The students won the toss and elected to bat. Each team wished the others good luck and the staff sought to explain to the by now confident students, that in fact intimidatory behavior towards any staff member was likely to mean an extended period as a student. We were honoured by Professor Kym Abbott agreeing to be the umpire in his last year as Head of School.

The atmosphere was electric as the staff took to the field, tens of students (or at least 10) turned up to watch their team slaughter the staff. Cathers had not arrived and Tubs was not sure whether to go to the calving or to send his wife. Stephen Pyecroft (Pikers) and his son Harry were thus conscripted to assist in the field, pending the arrival of our tardy equine veterinarian. Purders donned the gloves as Boarders martialled his troops. Craggers in his hot pink socks patrolled the boundary as Abers opened the bowling.

Within a jiffy, the staffers were smiling. Quigley did not respond to Burns call for a run and Burns was stranded without facing a ball. Nicholls hit a quick fire 18 before being wonderfully caught on the boundary by O'Handers. Trott trapped Quigley as Purders whipped off the bails beautifully and with such elegance, he could have been mistaken for Haddin. Young, the student's captain was in excellent form depositing all and sundry over the boundary before retiring at 20. Collett struggled valiantly to get off the mark before O'Handers bowled Smith. Cameron succumbed to Boarders guile and was bemused and bowled. Tubs took an excellent catch at deep mid off to dismiss KRA. Packer hit an excellent 30. Cathers snaffled Sexton and Fensham was no match for Boarders leg spin. Hiners got Hibbard and Weir was bowled. All out for 121 (the total to chase) with four overs to spare, so we were left to admire the retiree Young as he faced the last few overs, biffing sixes with consummate ease. The final total was 171 with Young getting 67 before being run out.

The staffers turn did not start too well - hastily sent in batsmen Craggers and Tubs (who had to leave for rugby coaching and a calving respectively) were out very soon with the accurate Fensham taking two wickets in his first over. Abers soon succumbed as well and the staff were reeling at 3 for 2. Golars then came in and with O'Handers put on an excellent exhibition of power hitting before they both retired. Trotters played a composed innings of 15 before being controversially out lbw to Fensham. Hiners, Purders and Turters both perished quite quickly to some wily bowling. At 8-79, Boarders was then joined by retiree Golars. Steadily they crept to the winning total - Golars being particularly harsh on Hibbard despite giving a couple of chances to the butterfingers Young. Boarders hit a towering six over mid off which was truly astounding because he could barely see the ball. Down to the last two overs and only six was needed. Could it be the staffers would get revenge and beat the students in a battle of epic proportions. Golars missed a couple of mighty swipes and then hit one to cover. Delusions of youthful athleticism meant Boarders ran for a quick single only to be stranded two metres short while digging a furrow with his bat. Boarders had confidence that the reliable O'Handers could down the students but in the gathering gloom was bowled comprehensively. All out for 116. The students had won by 5 runs, and the staffers had grabbed defeat from the jaws of victory.

Lots of jolly back slapping and leg pulling continued over a very welcome cool beer. Kym Abbott was presented with an engraved miniature bat (which he said will end up in the pool room) as man of the match for sentimental reasons, being his last year as head of school. Over for another year but lets hope the staffers can avenge the defeat in 12 months time on Thursday 19th March 2015.....
