

Roseworthy Student Newsletter

NEWS FROM THE APO

Welcome back from your mid-semester break – only a few weeks to go now until the end of semester and then exams. The exam timetable is released next Friday (13th May) – make sure you check on all your courses and note the date and time as well as location (some exams will be at Roseworthy, some at Wayville).

Prof Phil Hynd will finally present his "Where can my degree take me?" for the level III animal science and agriculture students during the lunch break for Animal breeding & Genetics on Wed 11th May. I am hoping to present some careers information sessions (CVs, selection criteria, etc) before the end of semester, but if that doesn't happen, they will definitely occur during Sem 2.

As we draw close to the end of Semester, it will also be time for courses (and some lecturers) to be SELTed. The School takes the results of these very seriously, so please be constructive in your responses. Also, I would like to thank everyone for their contributions to the Snack & Yacks held earlier in the semester. These are currently working their way through the relevant areas of the School.

At the beginning of the mid-semester break the School held its inaugural Recognition Dinner – a night dedicated to those that graduated from the various programs in 2010. We were able to present a number of prizes and scholarships and I would like to congratulate all those that received one of these. Information on prizes and scholarships available within the School can be found at <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/vetsci/scholarships/>.

AVSA Update

The Merial Wine Tour through the Clare Valley was a big hit, with participants enjoying a drop or two! Check out the photos in this edition of the newsletter.

There are many events with dates to be confirmed so keep your eyes peeled. These include many "lunch and learn" sessions with guest speakers providing some lunchtime entertainment with some free food from our sponsors. These are always an interesting lunchtime so make sure you watch your emails. AVSA will also be running a whole-campus BBQ soon for all the students of Roseworthy. Come down for a sausage or two in a few weeks time with a date to be advised.

Of course, make sure you keep the date for
