

NEW TEACHER OF SINGING AT CONSERVATORIUM AND WIFE

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Denton, who will arrive by the Narkunda on Saturday. Mr. Denton has been appointed teacher of singing at Elder Conservatorium, University of Adelaide, in succession to Mr. Clive Carey. Mrs. Denton was formerly Miss Carys Davies, a Welsh singer. She possesses a mezzo-contralto voice of much beauty.

TWO MASTERS OF SCIENCE TO WED IN ENGLAND

MR. F. G. HOLDAWAY

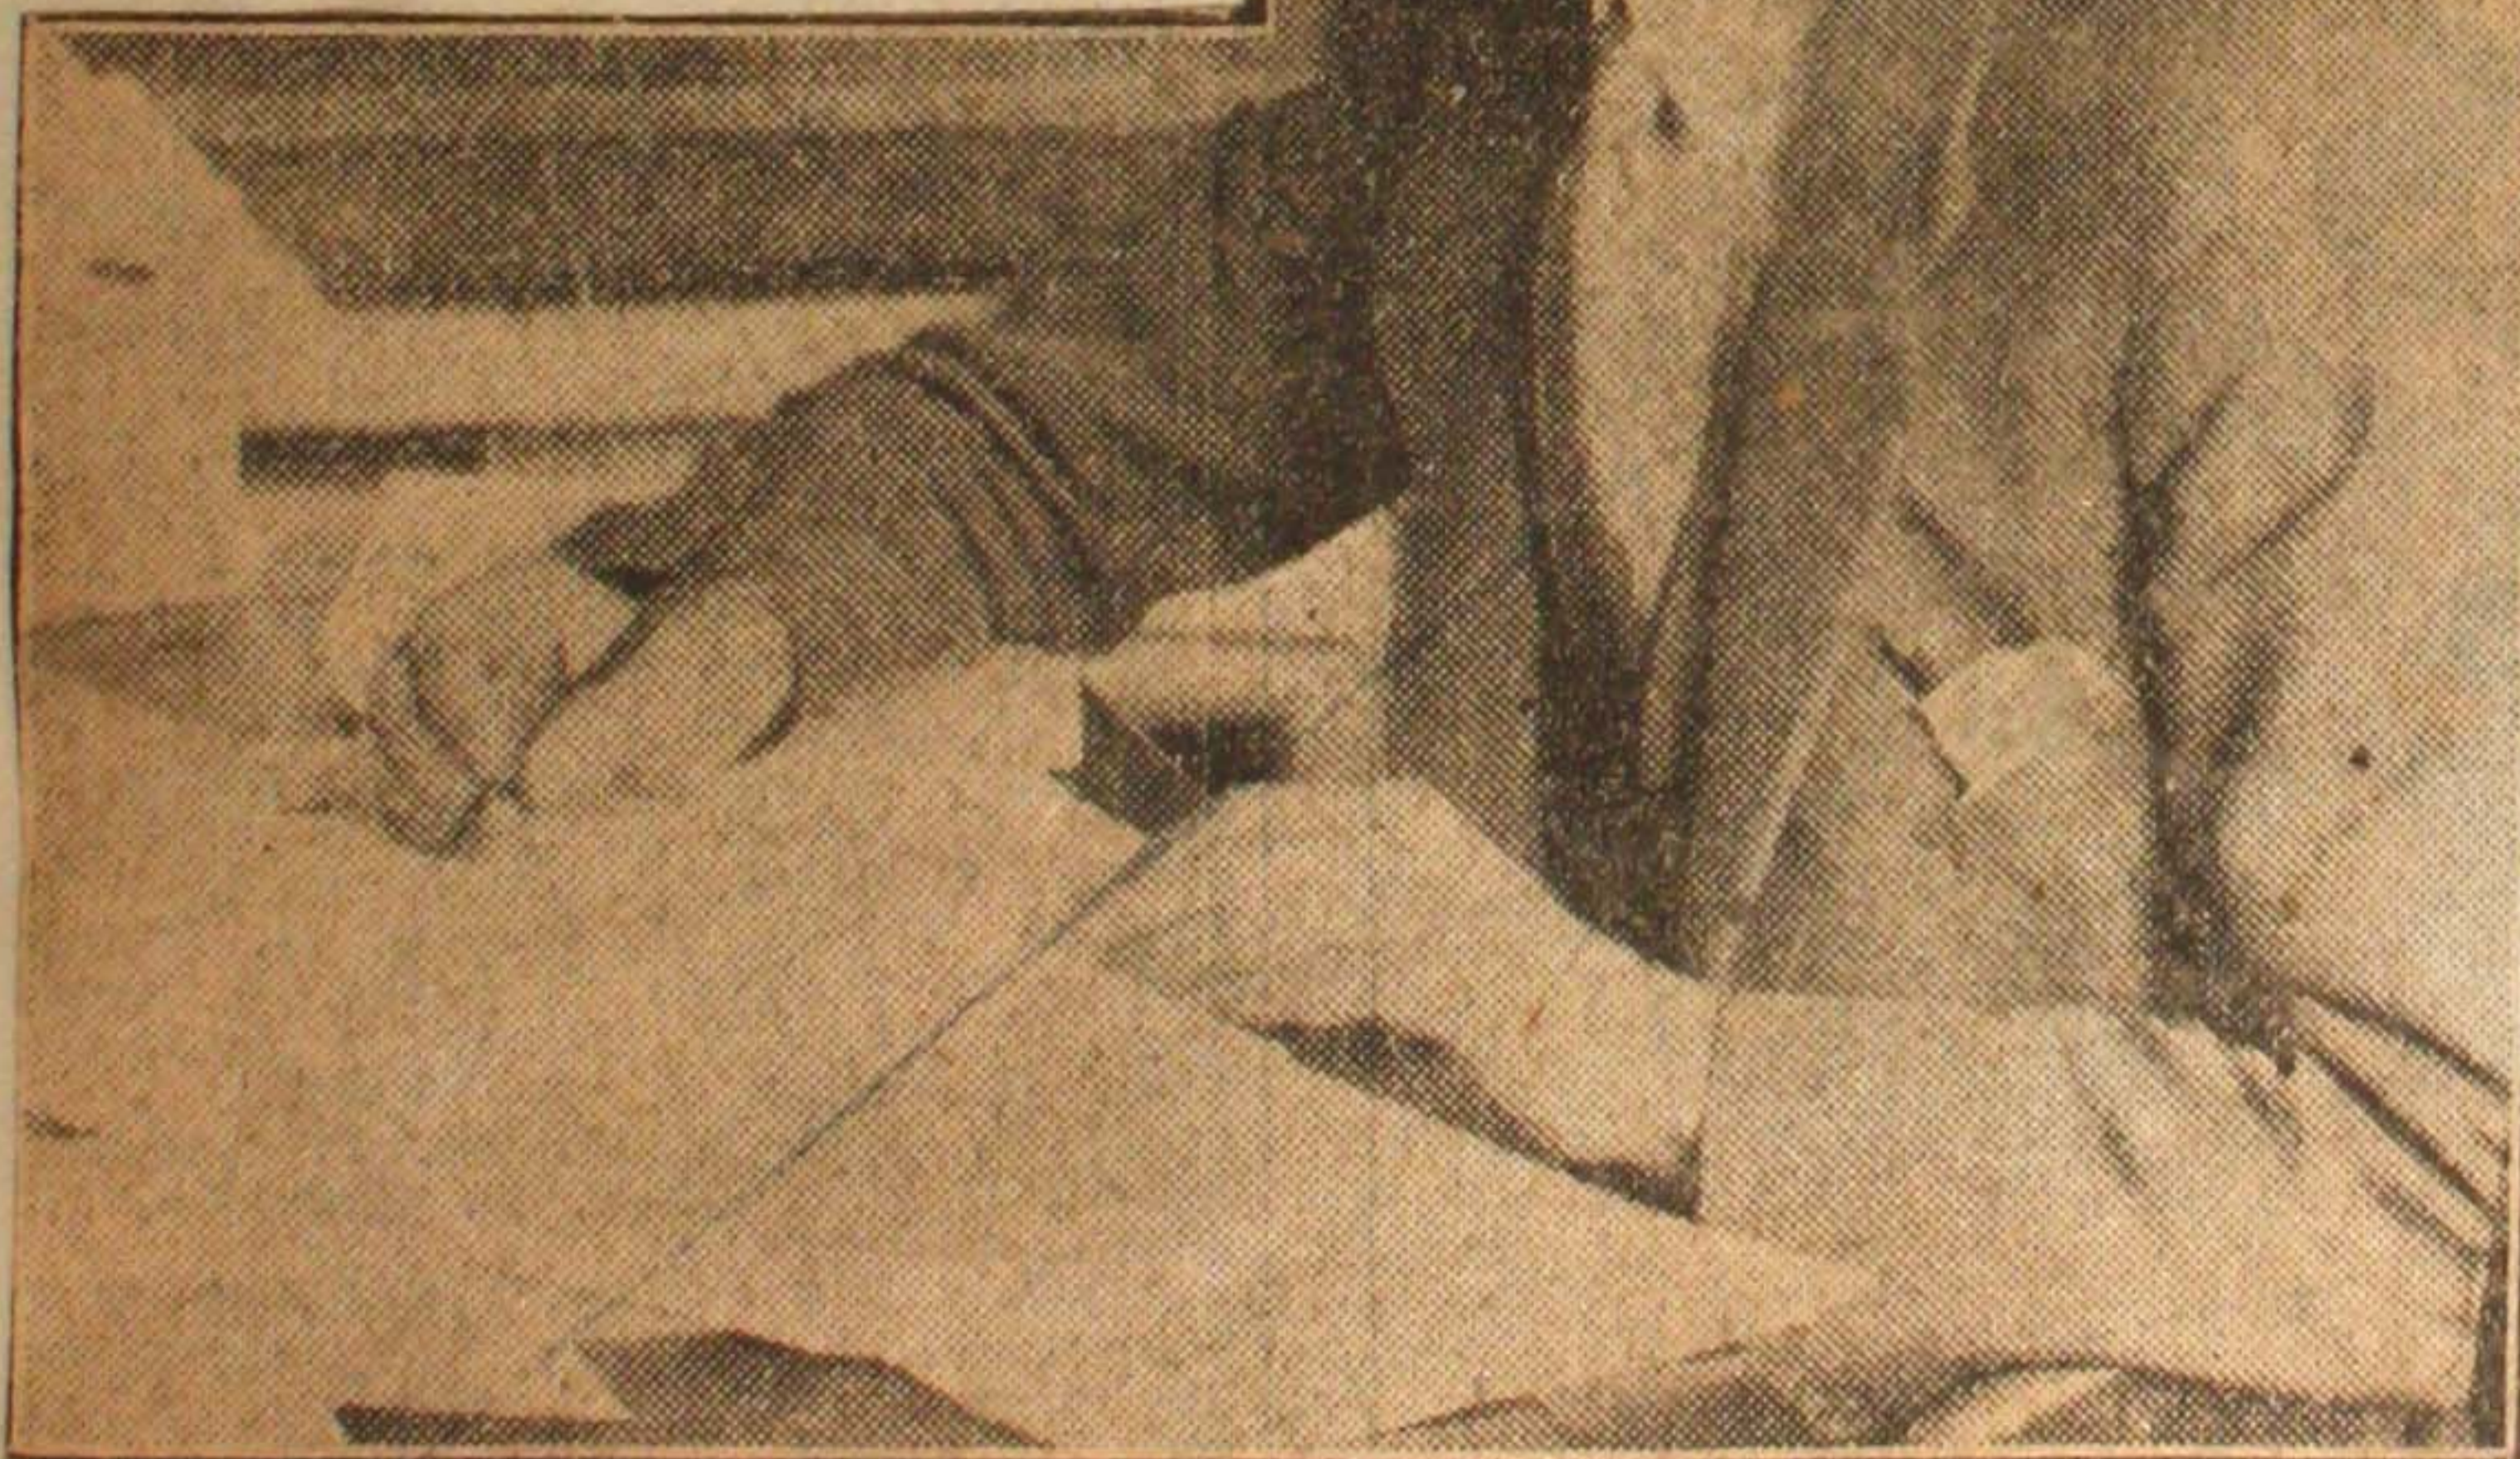

MISS E. D. MACKLIN

Miss E. D. Macklin, M.Sc., will be a passenger from Adelaide by the Comorin on Thursday, September 13. She is going to England, where she will be married to Mr. F. G. Holdaway, who is in America. Both are well known in Adelaide University circles. Miss Macklin graduated with honors in botany, and was awarded the degree of Master of Science in 1927. Mr. Holdaway has a similar degree. After a brief stay in England they will go to the Continent, where Mr. Holdaway will be engaged in research work. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Illingworth (Mayor and Mayoress of Unley) will give Miss Macklin a farewell in Unley City Hall on Friday night.

MISS MARY DAWBARN, M.Sc.

who is the second woman to gain a Master of Science Degree at the University of Adelaide.

MR. H. R. OTHAMS, CLERK OF PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1928

MR. F. W. EARDLEY, B.A., REGISTRAR OF ADELAIDE UNIVERSITY