

North-Country Dance.

This is a handwritten musical score for a North-Country Dance. The piece is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of a single melodic line and a two-part accompaniment. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, while the accompaniment is split between a treble and a bass clef staff. The score is divided into four systems, each containing two staves. The first system begins with a treble clef staff containing a few notes, followed by the main two-staff accompaniment. The second and third systems each have a treble clef staff with a melodic line and a two-staff accompaniment. The fourth system follows the same structure. The notation includes various rhythmic values such as quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests and chordal accompaniment. The handwriting is clear and legible.
