"THE EDUCATION OF ABORIGINAL CHILDREN IN ADELAIDE:

A COMPARATIVE STUDY."

By D.J. PRIDEAUX, A.U.A. (Arts and Education).

Thesis submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts in Geography.

Department of Geography,
University of Adelaide.

August, 1971.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

I would like to thank the following people for the assistance they have given me in undertaking this research: Professor G.H. Lawton for allowing me the use of the facilities of the Geography Department of the University of Adelaide; Dr. Fay Gale, my supervisor, for her patient guidance and thoughtful criticism; Mr. T.L.C. Griffin, also of the Geography Department, University of Adelaide, for advice on statistical methods; Mr. A.J. Whitelaw, Assistant Superintendent of Primary Education, South Australian Education Department; Mr. E.S. May of the Psychology Branch, South Australian Education Department, for providing copies of attainment tests; Mrs. J. Hague, formerly of Wattle Park Teachers' College, for helping to arrange entry into the schools; and the State Library for photographic work.

The project could not have been completed without the interest and co-operation of staff and students in the schools. I am indebted to Mr. C.R. Neilson, headmaster Taperoo Primary School; Mr. V.G.C. Baillie, headmaster Mansfield Park Primary School; and Mr. P. Cadd, headmaster Ferryden Park Primary School. Also thanks to Jan for her patience while the thesis was being completed.

DECLARATION.

This thesis is based on original research carried out by the author, and contains no material accepted for any other degree or diploma in any University. To the best of my knowledge it contains no material previously written or published, except where due reference is made in the text.

D.J. PRIDEAUX.
