SONNIE GET YOUR GUN!

We're Headin' for the Lust Round-up!

We've got the sun in the morning and the noon at night for doin' what comes naturally!

BUT we gotta watch ourselves!

Yes folks, its on again, and there'll be few holds barred in our annual celebration—but keep it clean!

While official operations will not begin until tomorrow the grape-vine has made it clear that certain of our number are contemplating beating the gun and starting the ball rolling tonight—fair enough, as long as that's all they set rolling.

The feature act will be the Procession which is scheduled to move off at 1.15 p.m.

Trucks will begin assem-seen the lawyers firm a few points.

The Drinking Competition will be followed by a Men v. Women Rugby match on the Technical School Oval. Men players in this match are reminded to wear sand-shoes and a girls' sports tunic.

Girls are to wear football shorts and jumpers.

The game will be in the capable hands of Referee Doggie Lea. (See back page).

National Union to act on Com. Scholarships

This year as in other years, N.U.A.U.S. has received many complaints from students on the inadequacy of the present Scholarship scheme.

First instituted in 1951, the Scheme was designed with the expressed aim of providing a capable student, regardless of income, with the opportunity of gaining a higher education.

Undoubtedly it has helped many talented students from families on a lower income, to enter the professional ranks, but, after discussing the Scheme with a number of scholars it has become very obvious that the scheme has failed to carry out the original ideal of "reducing the inequalities of educational opportunity at the tertiary level."

The present policy of the Universities' Commission has been criticised in particular with regard to the "living" allowance under the scheme. Students who are forced to see this assistance complain that the present rate and method of computation is quite out of touch with all reasonable requirements.

Numbers of students have been forced to borrow from the students' loan fund in order to supplement the grant.

Cases of Special Hardship.

One student is particularly unfortunate. His mother receives a widow's pension, and his younger brother is at school. In order to help financially he has taken an evening job which gives him £3/3/0 per week; he also holds a bursary which is valued at about 19/- a week.

The effect on his allowance is that he is only 15/- better off than he would be if he were doing nothing at all. It would certainly be understandable if the student failed to disclose his earnings, for the present regulations do not encourage honesty.

Cases such as this are not uncommon, and many students have just grievances. It is high time the original scheme was revised and its present inadequacies rectified.

What is National Union Doing?

National Union makes an annual submission on the Scholarship Scheme to the Universities Commission and over the years have obtained modifications in the scheme for students.

Will You Help?

In order to base the N.U.A.U.S. submission on the maximum of factual information, we appeal to all students to forward opinions and suggestions on the scheme, and cases of hardship, to your local S.R.C. The full support and co-operation of all students is necessary if changes are to be effected. We need your help!

bling at the front of the University at 12 noon and participants are advised to be ready for the traditional and comprehensive police censorship at 1.00 p.m. So if you've got to be a little blue make it subtle! . . . or cover it up till the law's passed.

Anyone with an eleventh-hour idea should see Bradley immediately.

First official act in this day of days will be the stunt in the morning. Details are still on the secret list, but we can assure you that you will be made rudely aware of what gives at the earliest possible time.

Spectators are again warned not to block the traffic while the stunt is in progress—you never know, the council could be serious.

As soon as the procession has dispersed and the participants recovered, onlookers will then adjourn to the Drinking Horn Competition.

The competition will feature the University's top drinkers under the able direction of jive champion George Lyons. The bookies are being cautious about the outcome, but Med. are shortest priced at the moment. However late fluctuations have plenty of hot music and hot lines assured.

Procession protagonists are reminded to save placards and other trophies for Hop decorations.

That's all we know for now—but keep tuned to the S.R.C. for further bulletins.

LET'S GET ON WITH SHOW!

Sam Abraham is New President

Amid prolonged clapping Sam Abraham became the new S.R.C. President at a meeting of the new S.R.C. on Monday night.

Sam was vice president last year and he has been active in student affairs since he came to Adelaide from Malaya to study Medicine.

Michael Smyth was elected vice president. He was secretary last year in first year on the council.

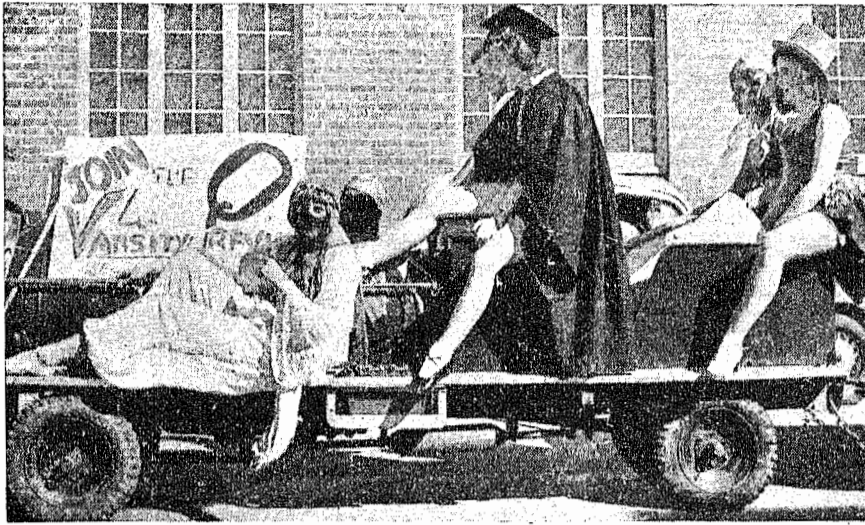

Secretary is Bronwen Greet who has been on the S.R.C. for 3 years and was assistant secretary for her first year.

David Luke who is in his first year on the S.R.C. was elected to the position of treasurer. He should experience little difficulty in looking after the shekels as he is an economics student.

The assistant secretary will be well known debater and president of the Liberal Union, Margaret McLachlan.

. . . . We will remember them !

NUAUS find Funds for Goodwill Tours

In recent weeks Trust Funds have been set up on behalf of National Union which will be available as finance for future delegations and goodwill tours.

These trust funds are being set up in two main ways. The Argus newspaper of Melbourne, which so generously ran an appeal last year which enabled us to send a delegation of students to Malaya and Indonesia last January, has agreed to make a further appeal this year for money to be spent on similar delegations to South East Asia. When Dr. Russo of the Argus returns to Australia this month from an extensive tour of Asia, he intends to proceed immediately with the arrangements for this appeal.

However, the N.U.A.U.S. Council decided at its meeting in Adelaide that side by side with the Argus appeal there should be another Trust Fund set up in Sydney and a Trust Committee with Sir Bertram Stevens as Convenor, and with David Teplitzky, President of N.U.A.U.S., they have been working in that capacity for the raising of further money by public donation. An approach has also been made to Commonwealth Government who have agreed to allow all donations to be deductible Income Tax items but who, at this stage, are not prepared to make any direct financial contribution.

It is imperative, however, that students generally, in realising the importance of these goodwill tours to Asia, are prepared also to make some contribution, and the various constituents of N.U.A.U.S. have been asked to endeavor to raise finance from their students. The Guild of Undergraduates in Western Australia and the Sydney S.R.C. have made substantial contributions already and other centres have promised their support. This means that you, yourself, may be asked for a practical contribution to the Funds, which eventually may make it possible for you, yourself, to travel on a goodwill delegation to somewhere in Asia. In this way students can feel that they are leading the community by making personal contribution to the setting up in many ways of strong ties of friendship.

BATTLE OF THE SEXES

It'll be a battle of the sexes when men and women clash at Rugby tomorrow.

The battle will be fought on the Tech. School Oval, beside the Med. Building.

Tactics should play an important part in this game and press statements by team captains show that the game will be willing.

The women, it is understood, will be hitting 'em hard and low—the men are expected to be satisfied to tackle high.

Leader of the women's pack is Helen (go for the solar) Alexander. Others in the front row will be Robin Red (all of it) Burnard, Marg. (Stop 'em anyhow) McLachlan and Mary (in with the

S.O.S. TO CAMERA ENTHUSIASTS

The Camera Club needs your support. Over the past few years this club has slowly declined because of lack of interest by students and administration alike. This should not be so, because we are fortunate to have our own dark-room, completely equipped, and also we have access to invaluable advice on technicalities from the best photographers in the land. This club was formed for you, so please support it by attending the annual general meeting on Friday, September 7, at 1.15.

We wish to hold model nights, outings, competitions, etc., but without your support this is impossible. So please turn up to the A.G.M.

INDONESIA

Information has been received from N.U.A.U.S. about a trip to Indonesia in the long vacation for students who are willing to lecture (presumably in English). More details from S.R.C. Office.
