

the degree, in order to forget a complaint, of which as a result of the metaphysical system of healing she believes she is all but cured. Miss Campbell and Mrs. Kelly are the only lady Mus. Bacc. in South Australia, and altogether only four students have taken the degree in Adelaide in nearly fourteen years. With regard to her degree examinations, in the first year she passed top of the list with 99 per cent., and in the second and third years was bracketed with Mr. Jones at the head of the list.

Mr. W. M. Hole, Organist, Choirmaster, and Assistant Master at St. Peter's College, is a native of Devonshire, England, and has been in Australia about nine years. After his arrival in Adelaide Mr. Hole held for a time the position of musical critic on "The Register." He visited the neighbouring colonies, and on his return was attached to the staff of St. Peter's College as Assistant Master and Organist. On the post of Choirmaster becoming vacant by the retirement of Mr. Fisher Mr. Hole was chosen to fill the vacancy, and he has performed the duties of that office for about seven years. His principal tutor has been Professor Lives.
