

ONE-ACT PLAY EVENING

4th and 5th May, 1940.

(1) The Old Lady Shows Her Medals James Barrie

Mrs. Dowey Muriel MacDonald
 Mrs. Twymley Lois Thomson
 The Haggerty Woman Nell Myhill
 Mrs. Mickleham Winifred Woodroffe
 Mr. Willings Robert Wyndham
 Kenneth Dowey Douglas Skurray

Produced by Charles Garnier-Bradley.(2) The Man Born to be Hanged Richard Hughes

Mr. Lenora Frank Bailey
 Davey Edward Lawrence
 Bill George Amos
 Mr. Spencer Rex Jarrett
 Nell Bettie Dickson

Produced by Frank Bailey.

"The Man Born to be Hanged" ---

Author's note: "I wanted to divide the action into two convergent planes: the Here-and-Now action on the stage, and the narrated action in Bill's conversation.....Then I wanted to show the two halves converging, the story coming to coincide with the moment presented on the stage.

(3) The Proposal Tchekhov
(A Jest in one act)

Stepan Stepanovitch Tchubukov Kenneth Robertson
 (a landowner)
 Natalya Stepanovna Lenna Shearer
 (his daughter)
 Ivan Vassilyevitch Lomar Donald Kerr
 (a neighbour of Tchubukov, a healthy, well-nourished, but hypochondriacal landowner).

Produced by Clive CareyNOTICES TO MEMBERS:

On Tuesday, 18th June, at 8.15 p.m., Dr. T.D. Campbell will give a talk on "The open-air 'theatre' of the Central Australian aborigines: their drama, dances, and theatre arts". Illustrated by pictures, motion picture films, and materials.

At the end of June (date to be announced later) the Guild Ballet Group will present a spectacular ballet.

(Choreography by Joseph Siebert: Music-Bach).

Members interested in the play-reading group please communicate with Miss Marthe Wait,