

ley, G.D.C.; V.W. Bro. Rev. S. Lenton, G.C. Representative of lodges travelled expressly from Burra, Saddleworth, and Hamley Bridge, and the lodge at Darwin was represented by P.M.'s Bros. Day and Richardson. The Lodge of St. Albans, of which Sir Samuel Way was a foundation member, was officially represented by the Master (Mr. T. S. Poole), Mr. J. E. Thomas (secretary), and Mr. C. Scales (senior warden).

The Grand Lodge of the Loyal Orange Institution of South Australia—Chairman of the Grand Lodge committee and the grand secretary.

The Supreme Court.—Mr. G. C. Ligertwood (acting Master), Mr. F. W. Sims (chief clerk, Master's office), Mr. H. Boothby (chief clerk, Probate Office), Mr. A. C. Johnson (chief clerk, Succession Duties), Mr. V. G. Lyons (clerk, Succession Duties), Mr. A. B. Webb (Associate to his Honor Mr. Justice Gordon), Mr. F. B. McBride (Associate to his Honor Mr. Justice Murray), Mr. H. M. Muirhead (Registrar of the Industrial Court), Mr. H. S. Richards (law reporter), Mr. O. H. Schomburgk (Sheriff), Mr. W. Wright (Public Trustee), Mr. F. C. von Dittmer (chief clerk, Public Trustee), Mr. B. P. Martin (accountant, Public Trustee), Mr. H. G. Chinner (clerk, Public Trustee), Mr. S. G. Blackman (clerk, Public Trustee), Mr. A. E. Stenning (clerk, Public Trustee), Mr. F. L. Morter (librarian), Messrs. W. McBean, J. Skinner, and C. W. Rix (messengers).

The Law Society.—Sir Josiah Symon (president), Mr. T. S. Poole (vice-president), and Mr. C. A. Edmunds (secretary).

The Public Library Board — Mr. T. Gill, I.S.O., Mr. L. H. Sholl, I.S.O., Dr. Rogers, Mr. C. M. Reid, Mr. W. B. Wilkinson, Mr. E. Davies, Mr. J. R. G. Adams (librarian), and Mr. E. Waite (naturalist).

The Zoological Society—Mr. A. C. Minchin, Mr. S. Newland. The president was to have attended, but met with an accident which rendered it impossible for him to do so.

The Children's Hospital—Dr. Lendon, Sir Charles Goode, Mr. C. H. Angas, Dr. Brummitt, Mr. W. A. Patterson, Mr. J. Marshall, Mr. W. H. Phillipps, and Mr. W. H. Sharland (secretary).

The Council of the School of Mines and Industry—Sir Langdon Bonython, the Hon. J. H. Howe, Messrs. H. Adams, W. H. Matthews, J. A. V. Brown, and F. W. Reid (registrar).

The Adelaide City Council—The Mayor (Mr. J. Isaacs), Councillors Frinsdorf, Jones, McEwin, and Rees, and the town clerk (Mr. H. P. Beaver).

Naval Forces—Lieutenant Argent, in the absence of Commander Burford, who was engaged on special duty at the Outer Harbor.

Military Forces—The State Commandant (Colonel Sandford), and Major Haraie (D.A.A.G.).

The Justices' Association—Mr. J. T. Kevern (president), Mr. J. C. Genders (registrar), and the following members of the council:—Messrs. H. Solomon, H. McArthur, G. Yeomans, E. C. Hemmingway, and J. W. Castine.

The British Medical Association—Dr. J. A. Bollen, Dr. A. C. Magarey.

The Chamber of Manufactures—Mr. H. B. Thompson (president), Mr. J. A. Harper (vice-president), Mr. J. W. McGregor, Mr. H. Heylen, Mr. G. E. Cleland, Mr. T. J. Richards, and Mr. H. E. Winterbottom (secretary).

The Chamber of Commerce—Mr. F. W. Vasey (president), Mr. E. Allnut (vice-president), and members of the council.

The Adelaide Hospital Board was represented by the chairman (Mr. W. G. Coombs).

The Australian Natives' Association—The vice-president (Mr. W. Mundevid).

The Agricultural Society—The president (Mr. R. H. Crawford) and others.

The Presbyterian Assembly—The Rev. J. Hall Angus (in the absence of the Moderator, the Rev. T. V. Charlton, who is at Clare).

The Jewish Community—The Rev. A. T. Boas and Mr. M. J. Solomon.

The Council of Churches—The Rev. G. Hall (president), Pastor Thomas (vice-president), Mr. J. Delehanty (secretary).

The Bible Society—Mr. W. Herbert Phillips and the Rev. J. H. Sexton.

The Y.M.C.A.—Mr. H. A. Wheeler.

The South Australian Gas Company—The chairman of directors (Mr. Arthur Langley) and the secretary (Mr. G. M. O'Dea).

Amongst others present were:—Mr. A. B. Moncrieff (Railways Commissioner), Mr. T. Gepp, S.M., Mr. W. H. Raymond (Commissioner of Police), Mr. G. L. Reed (secretary to Police Department), Inspector Burchell, Sub-Inspector Bushell, and Sub-Inspector Edwards, Mr. E. W. Giles (Commissioner of Audit), Mr. E. W. Bramble (Deputy Postmaster-General), Dr. F. W. Richards (Acting Crown Solicitor), Mr. J. Gray (secretary to the State Children's Department), Mr. T. H. Williams (Chief Inspector of Stock), Mr. G. G. Martin (secretary to the Attorney-General), Mr. C. Dalfield (secretary to the Commissioner of Crown Land, Messrs. J. Smee, J. Johns, R. Cockburn, and W. C. Calder ("Harvard"), Mr. J. Black (manager of the Commonwealth Bank), Mr. S. H. Rowe (Collector of Customs), Mr. G. W. Anthony (Registrar-General of Deeds), Mr. E. Kydin Thomas, and Mr. W. P. Dunk, of Milang, who was one of Sir Samuel Way's oldest friends.

Mr. F. W. Weston (manager of the late Sir Samuel Way's Kadlunga station) was unable, on account of indisposition, to be present, and the Hon. J. Lewis (President of the Royal Geographical Society) represented him.

Floral Offerings.

Wreaths were sent by his Excellency the Governor and Lady Galway, the Chief Justice of Australia and judges of the High Court, Mr. Justice Murray, Sir Langdon and Lady Bonython, members of the Government of South Australia, Freemasons of South Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, and Queensland; the Grand Mark Lodge of Victoria, the brethrer of Sir Samuel Way Lodge, and of the Lodge of St. Alban; the Port Darwin Lodge, No. 41; the Barunga Lodge, No. 43; the Lodge of Fidelity, No. 5; the Remark Lodge, No. 55; the South Australian Law Society; officers of Supreme Court, Public Trustee and Sheriff's department; council and staff, of the University, the Adelaide University, Sports Association, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Grundy, members of Adelaide Book Society, board and directors of Botanic Garden, the Naval and Military Club, members of the South Australian branch of the Navy League, Royal British Colonial Society of Artists; president, council, and members of the South Australian Society of Arts; the board of management and staff of the Adelaide Children's Hospital, the trustees of the Pirie-street Methodist Church, Hon. and Mrs. C. E. Davies (Tasmania), Mrs. R. Homburg, Mr. Hiram Varley, Dr. and Mrs. Marten, the Misses Tomkinson, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Downer, Mr. J. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. George Ligertwood, the Maughan family, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Colton, the family of the late Mr. Rupert Ingleby, Mr. and Mrs. P. Stow, Dr. and Mrs. Lendon, Mr., Mrs., and the Misses Goyder, the Rev. H. and Mrs. Howard, Miss E. H. Colton and Miss Cutting, Mrs. Jessie Calder, Miss Bunday, Nurse Shortridge, Mrs. W. J. Magarey, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Barr Smith, Mrs. A. T. Magarey, Mrs. Cecil Bray.

EXPRESSIONS OF SYMPATHY.

A MESSAGE FROM THE KING.

The following messages of condolence have been received at Montefiore:—

From the Secretary of State for the Colonies (Mr. Bonar Law):—"The King commands me to convey an expression of the deep regret with which he has learned of the great loss suffered by South Australia in the death of Sir Samuel Way. His Majesty the King is confident that his conspicuous devotion to the duties of his high office, and to the interests of Australia, will long be remembered by those who had the privilege of knowing him, and of appreciating his sterling qualities."

From his Excellency the Governor (Sir Henry Galway):—"It is with the most profound regret that I have heard of the death of the Chief Justice, South Australia's most distinguished son. May I express to you my heartfelt sympathy in the great loss which you have sustained. South Australia particularly, and the world generally, will be the poorer by his death. To me and to many of my predecessors in office he was ever a genial friend and trusty adviser. I feel his death very keenly, and his place will be none the less difficult to fill. Sir Samuel lived full of years and honors, and has left behind him a brilliant record of public service and usefulness which will always remain as the epitaph he would have chosen. He died in harness, and set a splendid example to us all of devotion to duty and clean living. The number of his friends who mourn their loss to-day is legion."

From Lady Galway:—"I send you my most heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolences. The life of the Chief Justice has been an example to generations of young men, and in these terrible times they have proved themselves worthy of his leadership. I feel sure that he would have chosen to go to his rest as he did, exercising to the last a noble and manly influence."

From the Premier (Hon. Crawford Vaughan):—"Kindly convey my deepest sympathy to the relatives."

From the Attorney-General (Hon. J. H. Vaughan):—"Sincerest sympathy in your sad bereavement."

From the Archbishop of Adelaide (Most Rev. Dr. Spence):—"My deepest personal sympathy and condolences from the whole Catholic community of South Australia."

From Sir Harry Allen, of the Melbourne University:—"Deepest sympathy to the Adelaide University on the loss of its great Chancellor."

From the Rev. Dr. Bevan:—"Great sorrow and affectionate condolence."

From the President of the Baptist Union of South Australia (the Rev. D. G. Stribling):—"Kindly convey to the relatives of the late Sir Samuel Way my deepest sympathy—a good man gone to rest."

From the South Australian board of directors of the Australian Natives' Association:—"Members of the association desire to convey their sympathy in the great loss sustained in the death of Sir Samuel Way. The good and noble work Sir Samuel has done in so many ways on behalf of the people of our State during his long life will ever keep his memory revered."

From the League of the Empire, South Australian branch:—"We express our deep sorrow at the death of our late president, in interest in the work of the league was unflinching, and his counsel and help was also found to be invaluable."

From the Public Library Board:—"We convey to the members of the family and relatives of the late Sir Samuel Way the deep sympathy and condolences of the board in the sad loss they have sustained by his death. He was a member of the board for 28 years, its chairman in 1881-2, and its president from 1893 to 1909, and his devotion to the institution contributed so materially to the success and distinction it has achieved."

From the Mayor of Port Augusta (Mr. J. Roberts):—"Sincere sympathy and condolence from the corporation and citizens."

From the Mayor of Moonta (Mr. W. Cowling):—"Citizens of Moonta extend their heartfelt sympathy in the family's sore bereavement, and the State's irreparable loss."

From the acting organising secretary for Australia of the London Missionary Society (the Rev. Joseph King), Melbourne:—"The society, gratefully recognising the many services rendered to the cause of foreign missions by the late Sir Samuel Way, sends this tribute of high esteem."

From the Premier of Victoria (Sir Arthur Stanley):—"Accept the sympathy of myself and my colleagues in the loss sustained by the death of Sir Samuel Way."

From Sir John Forrest, of Western Australia:—"Am very sorry; send sympathy."

From Archbishop Riey, of Perth:—"Sincere sympathy from an old friend of the Chief."

Messages were also received from:—Lady Goode, Sir John Gordon, Dr. and Mrs. Connelly, Dr. and Mrs. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Irwin, Dr. Inman Way, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beach, Mrs. Colin Campbell, Mr. F. H. Weston, the Hon. Alfred Catt, Mrs. H. C. Cave, Miss Nesbitt, Mrs. Stow, the Nursing Sisters of the North Adelaide Hospital, Miss Budgey, Mrs. Brotherton, Mr. A. F. Lloyd, Miss van Senden, Mr. T. C. A. Magarey, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howchin, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Boothby, Mrs. W. R. Boothby, Mr. A. W. Piper, K.C., Mr. J. G. Ashton, the Chairman of the Harbors Board, Mr. G. W. Anthony, Dr. W. G. Torr, Dr. White (Melbourne), Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hall, Dr. and Mrs. Poulton, Miss Eva Sellar, the Rev. W. E. James, Mrs. William Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Norman, Mrs. Hope Harris, Archdeacon and Mrs. Bassell, the Rev. O. Lake and Miss Lake, Sister Beatrice, Mr. W. Herbert Phillips, the Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Price, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lathlean, the Misses Peacock, Dr. and Mrs. H. Swift, Mr. T. Piper, the Rev. and Mrs. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Rock, Dr. P. Bollen, Mr. Puddy, Mr. Bennet Langton, Mr. Francis Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wells, Mrs. Davies Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Waite, Mr. Valentine Soul, the Rev. Samuel Knight, Mrs. William Thorne, the Rev. H. W. Horwill, Mr. W. B. Lake, the Rev. H. C. Farley, the Rev. D. G. Stribling, Mr. and Mrs. MacGillivray, Mr. H. C. Honey (London), the Hon. J. G. Bice, Mr. W. R. Bayly (headmaster of Prince Alfred College), Mr. G. Wilfred Anthony (Registrar of Deeds).

The Colonial Office.

His Excellency the Governor (Sir Henry Galway) has received the following telegrams:—

From the Secretary of State for the Colonies (Mr. Bonar Law):—"I have received with great regret the news of the death of Sir Samuel Way, who for nearly 40 years has filled the office of Chief Justice of South Australia with great ability and distinction. His wide interests and genial personality had secured for him the very special esteem and affectionate regard of his fellow-citizens, and I desire to express my sincere sympathy with his relations, and many friends, and with the State which mourns his loss."

From His Excellency the Governor-General (Sir Ronald Munro Ferguson):—I sincerely sympathize with you and South Australia on the loss of Sir Samuel Way. His long life, devoted throughout with conspicuous success to the public service, leaves us a great example which will long survive the day of mourning.

From the Governor of Western Australia (Sir Harry Barton):—"I deeply regret the death of Sir Samuel Way. He was a grand man and a staunch friend."

A Message from the Prime Minister

The Premier (Hon. C. Vaughan) has received the following telegram from the Prime Minister (Hon. W. M. Hughes):—"The Commonwealth Government deeply deplore the great loss sustained by South Australia through the death of the Chief Justice, Sir Samuel Way. Please express to relatives the sympathy of myself and colleagues."

Masonic Sympathy.

The following messages were received by the Grand Lodge of Freemasons of South Australia:—

From the Grand Lodge, New South Wales.—"Please convey sympathy from Grand Lodge."

From the Grand Lodge, Victoria.—"Please accept sincere and fraternal sympathy from Grand Master and Grand Lodge, Victoria, death of Most Worshipful Grand Master Sir Samuel Way."

From the Grand Lodge, Tasmania.—"Deepest sympathy from Grand Master and Tasmanian Masons upon death of your esteemed Grand Master."

From the Grand Lodge, Western Australia.—"Grand Master, on behalf myself and Grand Lodge, Western Australia, offers you deep fraternal sympathy on your loss South Australian craft surprised through death of beloved Grand Master."

From the Grand Lodge, New Zealand.—"Fraternal sympathy from New Zealand."

From the Grand Mark Lodge, New South Wales.—"On behalf Grand Mark Lodge and I desire to extend most sincere sympathy irreparable loss sustained consequent death your Grand Master, Sir Samuel Way."

From the Grand Lodge, Queensland.—"Please convey to officers and members of your Grand Lodge fraternal expressions of regret and sympathy at the demise of your venerated Grand Master, Sir Samuel Way, from the Brethren Grand Lodge of Queensland."

From the District Grand Lodge, Scottish Freemasons, Queensland.—"Sincere sympathy and deepest regret great loss sustained your Grand Lodge in lamented death of your highly-esteemed Grand Master."

From the Grand Mark Lodge, Victoria.—"Please accept sincere and fraternal sympathy from Grand Master and United Grand Lodge of Mark Masters Masons of Victoria death of Most Worshipful Brother Sir Samuel Way."

From R.W. Bro. Judge Hamilton, Sydney.—"Deeply regret learn loss sustained by death of your revered and beloved Grand Master."

From R.W. Bro. Hon. C. E. Davies, Hobart.—"Sincerely deplore Australia's loss, especially South Australia, by death of dear old friend, your beloved Grand Master. From wife and self, in affectionate remembrance, greatest sympathy."

Bible Society's Tribute.

The following resolution was carried at a meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society on Monday:—"That this committee, at a specially convened meeting held at the Bible House to-day, having heard with deep and profound sorrow of the decease of their highly-esteemed president, Sir Samuel J. Way, Bart., P.C., Chief Justice of South Australia, place on record their sincere admiration of his honorable career as Lieutenant Governor of South Australia, his great ability as an impartial administrator of justice, his splendid character as a citizen, and their warm appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him to the religious, educational, and philanthropic institutions of the State, and especially of his warm-hearted zeal and interest in the world-wide work of the British and Foreign Bible Society."

The Orange Institution.

Bro. J. Gumley (Grand Master, L.O.L., S.A.) wrote—"The news of the death of so esteemed a citizen as Sir Samuel Way caused general regret among the members of the Loyal Orange Institution of South Australia. We admired him throughout his public career as a man who at all times lived up to the excellent principles which had been characteristic of his life, viz. to love mercy, practice charity, and do justice to all mankind—thereby gaining the high