

Res. 25.2.19.

MUSIC.

From P. A. HOWELLS.—In Dr. Davies' article on "Music Missions" he says that he is looking forward to a permanent orchestra in Adelaide...

Admission 14.3.19.

SUCCESSFUL COMMERCE.

WHAT AUSTRALIA NEEDS.

A meeting of students taking the diploma course in commerce was held at the Prince of Wales Theatre, Adelaide University, last night, at which Mr. H. Heaton, M.A., delivered an interesting address on "Some Essentials in Commercial Progress."

Ad. 14.3.19

ORCHESTRAL PLAYING.

The Director of the Conservatorium (Dr. E. Harold Davies) writes:—"Would you allow me to put in a plea to students of music, urging that more of those who are pursuing the art—"

Admission 21.3.19.

DEATH OF SIR EDWARD STIRLING.

A FINE CAREER.

Widespread regret will be caused by the announcement of the death of Sir Edward Charles Stirling, C.M.G., M.A., M.D., D.Sc., F.R.S., F.R.C.S., one of Australia's most distinguished scientists and scholars...

The late Sir Edward Stirling.

at The Lodge, Strathalbyn, and was the son of the late Hon. E. Stirling, and a brother of Sir Lancelot Stirling. His early education was received at St. Peter's College, after which he went to Cambridge, where he graduated at Trinity College in arts, science, and medicine.

Great Britain, Fellow of the Medical and Surgical Society, and member of the Clinical and Pathological Societies in London. He was connected with a large number of other scientific bodies.

Sir Edward Stirling was a great lover of nature, and his lovely garden at Mount Lofty is one of the show places of the State. It may, indeed, be described as perfect, and he delighted to show it to visitors.

Res. 21 Mar. 19

DEATH OF SIR EDWARD STIRLING, C.M.G.

Notable South Australian Scientist.

Death has deprived South Australia of a very notable son—a scientist and scholar who gained a world-wide reputation in the fields of natural history and of medical research.

THE LATE SIR EDWARD STIRLING.

the State had played so many parts. He had been naturalist, surgeon, explorer, writer, teacher, gardener, sociologist. He had even been a politician!

—Early Days Onwards.— He was the eldest son of the late Hon. Edward Stirling—formerly a member of the Legislative Council—and was born at The Lodge, Strathalbyn in 1848. He was

Res. 27.2.19.

THE ELDER CONSERVATORIUM.

From "NEAPOLITAN SMITH":—"Dr. Davies in The Register on February 22 said:—"There may some time or other be a place (at the Conservatorium) even for the Bach Society, without in any way restricting the splendid work Mr. Bevan has done with his choral class."

Ad. 27.2.19.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

EXAMINATION RESULTS.

- Special Senior Examination, February, 1919.—Pass List—English literature, Eg.; modern history, Mh.; ancient history, Ah.; economics, Ec.; Greek, Gk.; Latin, L.; French, F.; German, Gn.; arithmetic and algebra, Aa.; geometry, Gt.; trigonometry, Tg.; physics, Pp.; inorganic chemistry, Cc.; physiology, Pl.; physical geography and geology, Gg.; x denotes credit.