

Index to Volume 12 (1923-1924)

University of Adelaide Archives: Series 163 University Newscuttings Books

- Agriculture, Faculty of
 - teaching of agriculture inadequate, 179
- Basedow, Dr Herbert,
 - scientific, anthropological and mining researcher, 169
- Bayly, W.R.,
 - appointed head of Prince Alfred College, 181
- bequests, gifts & endowments
 - request for books for Japanese libraries, 127
 - gift of £100 to start low-interest loans to students, 28
- Bragg, Sir William H
 - appointed as Director, Davy-Faraday Laboratory, London, 55
 - represents the Australasian Association for the Advancement of Science, 63a
 - Royal Institution London, 158
- buildings
 - tenders to be called for new teachers college on Kintore Ave, 161,163
 - extensions to Prince of Wales building, 142
 - old police barracks demolished for university extensions, 56
- calendar
 - 1924 edition, 190
- chancellors
 - Sir George Murray's reception for Oxford Professor, J Mackail, 36
- Chapman, Robert Hall,
 - appointed Assistant Engineer of Bridges, 72
- Chapman, Professor Robert William,
 - 72, 81
- clubs, societies & associations,
 - Classical Association lectures, 41, 60, 80
 - Pharmaceutical Society, 55, 66, 77
 - newly-formed University Club, 175
 - Graduate Association, 17, 47, 48, 107,108, 110,133, 143
 - Law Students Association, 17, 33, 41, 52, 54, 58, 62, 64, 92, 98
 - debating team, 104
 - Women's Graduate Association meeting, 13
- Clucas, R.J. M., B.A.
 - university librarian, 155
- Corbin, Horace Hugh
 - 112, 113, 114, 115, 116
- conferences & seminars
 - Australian Christian Student Movement, 155
 - New Ideas in Education, 82, 85, 93, 95, 97, 98, 106, 109
 - Australian Dental Congress, 64
- Council, University of Adelaide
 - annual report for 1923, 173
- courses, non-degree
 - Workers' Educational Association student gains diploma of economics, 127
- Cromer, Victor,

first student to gain diploma of economics via extension lectures, 127

Davies, Dr. Harold Whitridge, appointed Rockefeller Foundation Research Fellow, 77

Davies, Professor Edward Harold'
51, 56, 65, 75, 110

Dentistry, School of new dental hospital, 50, 52, 59, 60
need for compulsory dental treatment, 65-66

distance studies
possibility of lectures by wireless, 122

Duffield, Professor W. Geoffrey,
20, 41, 43, 92, 104

Economics, School of,
largest class in Australia, 156

Elder Music Scholarship
39, 41, 78, 131

Engineering, School of,
survey camp for students, 183

examinations,
university results, 7, 124, 125, 129, 130, 131, 136, 137
Public Examinations Board results, 153, 159, 160, 164, 167-168 alternatives to public examinations for schools, 148
Australian Music Examinations Board results, 18, 111

extension lectures,
on wireless telegraphy by Professor Kerr Grant, 93, on crime and punishment, by Professor Coleman Phillipson, 93, 94, 126-127
programme for 1924, 177
education for adult worker, 183
three lectures by Professor J.W. Mackail on poetry and modern life, 29, 30, 31, 32-33, problems in connection with primary industry, 3 lectures by Professor Harvey Johnston, 41, 42,

finance,
gift of £100 to start low-interest loans to students, 28
1922 expenditure on sports grounds, 127

grounds,
1922 expenditure on sports grounds, 127

Forestry, School of,
South Australia's tree problem, 68
recent trends in forestry, 66 controversy over non-appointment of H Corbin as Conservator of Forests, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116

George Thompson Co-operative Scholarship in Commerce awarded to Eric. A. Gibson, 182

government relations,
Premier on extra University grants and exemption from land tax, 84

graduates,
Professor W. G. Duffield, 41, 92, 124
Bruce Anderson, B.Sc (Hons), 159
Dr. Edward Angas Johnson, M.B.(Adel) 176
Dr. Harold Whitridge Davies, 77,

Dr. Robert Vivian Storer MBBS (Adel), 52, 57
Dr. Herbert Basedow, 169
Thomas John Mellis Napier, LL.B (Adel) 177,178, 181
Robert Hall Chapman, 72
Dr W.W. Hurst, B.Sc (Adel), 40
W. R. Bayly, B.A, B.Sc (Adel), 181

graduation,
list of 1923 graduates and prize-winners, 137-138,142
list of teachers who graduated from the university in 1923, 140 11 of 27 prize-winners are women, 141 special ceremony to confer degrees in Arts, Science, Engineering, Law, 28

Grant, Professor Kerr,
62, 63a, 64, 92-93, 70, 72, 122

grounds,
dressing rooms at University Oval broken into, 27
history of the North Terrace Esplanade, including the university grounds, 110-111

Heaton, Dr. Herbert,
1-2, 3, 86, 102, 118

Henderson, Professor George Cockburn,
131

Hodge, Charles Reynolds
131, 132, 140, 147, 149, 150

Hurst, Dr. W. W,
awarded Ph.D. in Chemistry at Cambridge, 40

Johnson, Dr. Edward Angas, appointed Officer of Health for City of Adelaide, 176

Johnston, Professor Thomas Harvey,
37, 40, 43, 45, 47

Law, Faculty of,
students society, mock trial in tort of negligence, 28????
growth in numbers of law students, 20
inter-varsity debating won by Adelaide; 104
Adelaide's three women lawyers on suitability of law as a career for women, 26 mock trial on contract and property law, 44

lectures,
Dr. H. Heaton on "The Australian Economic Outlook", 118
Professor Thorburn Brailsford Robertson on the functions of the university, 183
Professor Darnley Naylor on Sophocles and Shakespeare, 110

legal issues,
suggestions for preservation of Australian fauna, 76

legislation bill to raise grants to the university, 83-84, 99, 100

library
R.J. M. Clucas, University librarian for 24 years, 155

Mackail, Professor J.M.
17, 29, 34-35, 36, 157

Marston, H.R.
research into preservation of citrus fruit, 91, 106

Mawson, Sir Douglas,
made Fellow of the Royal Society, 8,

- research into radium, 164
- Mayo, Dr. Helen,
 - on mental deficiencies in children, and their treatment, 15
- Medicine, Faculty of,
 - Sir Joseph Verco, lecturer in medicine for 29 years, 62
 - 5th conference of South Australian Hospitals Associations, 71
 - research on insulin by Professor Thornburn Brailsford Robertson, 87-88, 121, 124
 - Professor F. Wood-Jones, address to 1923 graduation ceremony, 143
- Mitchell, Professor William,
 - appointed to a visiting Gifford Lectureship in Scotland, 55
- Murray, Sir George,
 - as chancellor, holds reception, 36
- Music, School of,
 - Professor Harold Davies, 51, 110
 - Charles Schilsky, appointed professor of violin, 170, 171
 - concerts, 4, 25, 56, 72, 109, 114, 133,
 - farewell concert for John Bishop, 78
 - final social of year, 137
 - conservatorium praised, 117
 - the university's choral class, 85
- musical productions,
 - Professor E. Harold Davies conducts Elgar's "Dream of Gerontius" in Town Hall, 65, 75,
 - South Australian Orchestra, 4
 - first Elder Conservatorium concert of the season, 9
 - organ recital by Harold Wylde, 18, 29, 48, 62,
 - Frederick Bevan conducts Mendelssohn's "St. Paul", 92
 - pianoforte and violin recital, 79
 - review of chamber music concert at Conservatorium, 6, 7
 - student concert at Conservatorium, 85
 - students' farewell concert to Professor Wood Jones, 93
 - students' orchestral concert, 39
 - violin, flute and piano recital, 45
- Napier, Thomas John Mellis, K.C., LL.B.
 - appointed to South Australian Supreme Court, 177, 178, 181
- Naylor, Professor Henry Darnley,
 - 5, 6, 10, 26?, 108, 111, 148
- Phillipson, Professor Coleman,
 - 14, 80, 86, 88, 92, 99, 100, 119-120, 123, 126, 132, 138, 151, 156, 157, 173
- prizes and awards,
 - Dr. W.T. Hayward awarded gold medal, 126
 - George Thomson Bursary established for students in commerce, 81
- professors,
 - "Life in Shakespeare's England" by Professor Archibald Thomas Strong, 103, 104
 - "The chemical base of growth and senescence" by Professor Thornburn Brailsford Robertson, 173
 - "Three criminal law reformers" by Professor Coleman Phillipson, 80, 86, 88, 123
 - resignation of Professor George Cockburn Henderson; 130, 131
 - "Attitude towards criminals" by Professor Coleman Phillipson, 123
 - "League of Nations" by Professor Coleman Phillipson, 119-120

Professor Archibald Thomas Strong, 119
 Professor Edward Harold Davies, 110
 Professor Henry Darnley Naylor, 111
 Professor Kerr Grant involved in astronomical confirmation of Einstein's theory, 122
 Professor Thorburn Brailsford Robertson's research lowers cost of insulin, 121, 124
 Professor Coleman Phillipson, 138
 Professor Coleman Phillipson on "Is crime a disease", 126-127
 Professor Coleman Phillipson on "prison reform", 151
 Professor Coleman Phillipson on "punishment", 132
 Professor Kerr Grant on 'Wireless telegraphy", 92-93
 Professor Robert William Chapman on "Australia", 81
 Professor Henry Darnley Naylor suggests alternatives to public examinations in schools, 148
 Professor Henry Darnley Naylor opens new Montessori school, 108
 Professor Thorburn Bailsford Robertson on the excessive amount of meat eaten by Australians, 133
 Professor Frederic Wood-Jones address to 1923 graduation on modern anatomy, 143 public lectures,

- "Life in Shakespeare's England" by Professor Archibald Thomas Strong, 103,104
- "Poetry in modern life" by Professor J M. Mackail, 32
- "The Blowfly Pest", by Professor Thomas Harvey Johnston, 37, 43,
- "Prickly Pear Pest" by Professor Thomas Harvey Johnston, 37, 40
- "Problems in solar research" by Professor W G. Duffield, Adelaide University graduate, 41,
- "The study of the sun" by Professor W.G. Duffield, 43
- "Structure and growth of music", three lectures by Professor Edward Harold Davies, 51, 53, 56, 57
- "Tennyson", by Oxford professor of poetry, J W. Mackail, 37
- "Worm nodule disease in cattle", by Professor Thomas Harvey Johnston, 45
- three lectures on "crime and punishment" to be given by Professor Coleman Phillipson, 80, 86, 87, 99, 100
- "Matter, ether and electricity", three lectures by Professor Kerr Grant, 62 63a, 64, 70,72
- continuation of Prof Phillipson's series of lectures on crime and punishment, 92, 93-94
- Joseph Fisher commerce lecture on "Money, Credit and Exchange"delivered by J. Russell Butler, 23
- Professor Thomas Harvey Johnston on "The control of insects that control disease", 47
- Professor J. Mackail of Oxford on "Virgil", 34-35
- Professor Coleman Phillipson, on the profession of politics, 14
- Professor Sir Archibald Strong gives a lecture on Beowulf, 102,103-104
- Professor Frederic Wood-Jones on anatomy, 144, 146
- Professor J.W. Mackail on Australian education, 157

publications

- "Adelaide university magazine" published, 122
- "The chemical base of growth and senescence" by Professor Thorburn Brailsford Robertson, 173
- "Three criminal law reformers" by Professor Coleman Phillipson, 123
- "Faith in the League" by Professor Coleman Phillipson, 157
- "English verse and prose" by Professor Archibald Thomas Strong, 91,92
- portfolio of photographs of the Australian interior and west coast by W. D. Walker, 148
- "Anniversaries" by Professor Coleman Phillipson, 156

Registrar

- Registrar Charles Reynolds Hodge resigns, 131
- Frederick William Eardley appointed acting registrar; 156
- Frederick William Eardley appointed Registrar, 191
- Frederick William Eardley appointed acting Registrar, 156
- farewell to retiring Registrar, Charles Reynolds Hodge, 144-145,147
- Charles Reynolds Hodge recalls early days of Adelaide University, 132, 192

research

- address on agricultural research by Professor A.J. Perkins, 74,75
- appeal by Profesor J.B. Cleland for funds for a laboratory for zoological research, 43
- H. R. Marston's researches into preservation of citrus fruit, 91
- Professor Kerr Grant helps confirm Einstein's theory of relativity; 122
- inadequacy of Adelaide University's equipment for research to help confirm Einstein's theory of relativity, 52
- bill to increase government grants to university, and to give exemption from land tax, to aid agricultural research, 99, 100-101
- cheaper insulin available owing to research by Professor Thorburn Brailsford Robertson, 121,124
- need for reduction in the duty on the alcohol used in producing cheaper insulin, 134
- experiments with wireless, 93, 109
- forestry research by H. Corbin, 98-99, 101, 105-106
- Professor Thomas Brailsford Robertson on insulin as a treatment for diabetes, 87-88
- Professor Horace Lamb awarded Copley prize for molecular research, 157
- Professor Frederic Wood-Jones going to Flinders Islands to study flora and fauna, 155,159
- request for abolition of duty on alcohol used for research into production of insulin for diabetes sufferers,131
- research into production of cheaper insulin, 173
- the importance of university research into South Australia's vine industry, 28-29
- successful research into new ways of transporting citrus fruit overseas without refrigeration, 83

residential colleges, see also University colleges

- applications for secretary of new St. Mark's college called for, 106
- public appeal for funds for St. Marks residential college, 187,188,190,191

Rhodes Scholarship,

- 1924 winner: medical student Frederick Thyer, 139,140
- South Australian Rhodes scholars succeeding at Oxford, 126, 163, 168

Robertson, Professor Thorburn Brailsford

- 121, 124, 133, 173

Schilsky, Charles,

- appointed professor of violin, 170, 171

scholarships,

- community singing scholarship for tuition at the Conservatorium awarded to Ruth Naylor, 121
- list of government bursary winners, 158
- changes to bursary for commerce and prize verse, 130
- winner of Lowrie post-graduate research scholarship, Harry Kingsley Lewcock, 140
- winners of music scholarships, 131
- George Thompson Co-operative Scholarship in Commerce awarded to Eric A. Gibson, 182

secondary education,
 Australian students defended against claims of illiteracy, 46,50
 W. T. McCoy on illiteracy among Australian school children, 77
 A.L Gordon Mackay attacks bureaucratic interference in schools in speech "Fear and repression as enemies of education", 46,47,49

Senate, University of Adelaide changes to diplomas, bursary for commerce and prize for verse, 130

sport,
 inter-varsity women's tennis, 24,26, 27
 1923 expenditure on sports grounds, 127
 students vote against a proposed sports levy on male students, 39
 the Adelaide crew for the intervarsity boat race, 11
 L. J. Nesbit champion, 24

staff,
 Professor George Cockburn Henderson resigns, 131
 Registrar Charles Reynolds Hodge retires, 131, 132, 147, 149,150
 A. A. Lendon, lecturer in obstetrics, resigns 131 list of new academic appointments, 145,150
 Rev E. S. Kirk appointed lecturer in modern history, 157
 Frederick William Eardley appointed acting Registrar, 156

statistics,
 editorial on the development of the university, 140
 details of growth of Adelaide University over F.W. Eardley's time there from 1898 to 1923, 156
 Registrar Charles Reynolds Hodge on his resignation, recalls early days of Adelaide University, 132, 192

Storer, Dr. Robert Vivian, receives prestigious medical diplomas in United Kingdom, 52, 57

Strong, Sir Archibald Thomas
 102, 103-104, 119

student activities and protests, inter-varsity debates, 77, 79, 80, 104
 the student procession ("prosh"), 141,147

technology
 possibility of lectures by wireless discussed, 122

University colleges, see also residential colleges drive to establish residential college in Adelaide, 17 first residential college to be founded by the Church of England, 7, 8 name of proposed residential college changed from Christ's college to St. Mark's, 38 purchase of Sir John Downer's house for a residential college, 4, 5, 7

Verco Sir Joseph,
 72nd birthday; summary of career as lecturer, 62

vice-chancellors
 part-editorial on Professor William Mitchell, 154

Waite Agricultural Research Institute consideration of the Waite bequest, 144 decision to use Waite land for re-forestation, 94 exemption from land tax granted for Waite request, 74 meeting of Chancellor with Premier Barwell on execution of the Waite bequest, 68, 69-70 report on plant pathology by Geoffrey Samuel, appointed as lecturer in plant pathology under the Waite bequest, 118

Urrbrae passes to the university, to be used for agricultural research, 142

women students

Gwendolen H. Ure granted Bachelor of Law and wins Stow Scholarship, 143

Thelma E. Blaby granted Bachelor of Law, 143

education of girls, 13

debate on Cambridge's refusal to confer degrees on women, 41b graduation of first three women teachers from the Teachers Training Institute, 139

interviews with Adelaide's three women lawyers about suitability of law as a career for women, 26

eleven of twenty-seven prize-winners at 1923 graduation ceremony are women, 141 successes of ex-Methodist Ladies College students at university, 133

Elizabeth Jackson memorial, 24, 28

Wood-Jones, Professor Frederic,

47, 53, 143, 144, 146, 155, 159

Workers' Educational Association

growth in its first 7 years, 123

increased funding, 27,52

first Workers Educational Association student to gain Diploma of Economics., 127 promotion by Dr H. Heaton, 86

classes resuming, 177

programme for 1924, 177

education for adult worker, 183