RHODES SCHOLARS.

RECORDS OF SOUTH AUSTRALIANS. The Oxford representative of the Rhodes Trustees recently forwarded to the general secretary for Rhodes scholarships in Australia (Dr. J. C. V. Behan) a copy of the report which he sends annually to the selection committee in each State. The following statements extracted from the report are now published for the first time. They furnish interesting particulars of the record of Rhodes scholars chosen to represent South Australia at Oxford.

- 1919—Mr. S. Howard—Was up for one term only of 1923. Gained a second class in the honor School of Physiology, 1922. Represented Oxford against Cambridge in relay races, 1921. Is now at the London Hospital.
- 1920—Mr. H. I. Coombs—Gained a B.Sc. in chemistry, 1922, and took the first part of the Chemistry Honor School, 1923. Rowed for one year.
- 1921—Mr. H. W. Florey—Gained a first class in physiology, and the Francis Godkin Memorial prize, 1923. Is now reading for the B.Sc. degree. Has represented his college in lawn tennis, hockey, and running.
- 1922—Mr. T. Ashhurst—Reading for the Honor School of Chemistry. Has represented his college in running and Rugby.
