

MIGRANTS' WELFARE.

UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

ADULT INSTRUCTION

Return of Dr. Beard.

Dr. J. R. Beard returned to South Australia on Wednesday evening from London, where he was for five years engaged in medical studies.

DR. J. R. BEARD.

more than 800, and, with the exception of seven foreigners, were from Great Britain.

Do you agree with the suggestion that it would be wise to give migrants more opportunities during the long voyage out to receive instructions regarding their new life?

Is there in England an awakening consciousness of the need for better distribution of the Empire's population?

With refreshing reticence, Dr. Beard declined to say anything about political England, the dome, or the menace of communism.

REG. 16-2-26

The first term of the paper Examination will meet Monday.

11—Mr. L. J. Stanley, LL.B.

One of the 1924 University graduates is Mr. Laurence John Stanley of North Adelaide, who completed his school career with the degree of LL.B. when 22 years of age.

Mr. Stanley is the son of Mrs. E. Stanley, of North Adelaide. Born on June 13, 1903, Mr. Stanley received his primary education at several local public schools.

Rembrandt Portrait.

MR. L. J. STANLEY, LL.B.

who graduated at the University in examinations.

The following two years he studied at Christian Brothers College, Wakefield street. There he obtained the senior part in 1919 with seven subjects and the higher public with four subjects and a credit in economics in 1920.

Having served his articles with the Hon. W. J. Denny (Attorney-General) Mr. Stanley is now in the employ of one of the legal firms of Denny & Daly.

REG. 12-3-26

PERTH SCIENCE CONGRESS.

Preparations are being made for the next meeting of the Australasian Association for the Advancement of Science which will be held in Perth during the month of August next.

Preparations are being made for the next meeting of the Australasian Association for the Advancement of Science which will be held in Perth during the month of August next.

Preparations are being made for the next meeting of the Australasian Association for the Advancement of Science which will be held in Perth during the month of August next.

13—Mr. Kriewaldt, B.A., LL.B.

Mr. Martin Clunius Kriewaldt, who secured his LL.B. degree last November, has been articled to Mr. Ralph F. Newman of Messrs. Newman and Harris (solicitors), since 1923, and will apply for admission to the Bar in July.

He was born at Treowdale in 1900, and was a pupil at Concedia College, Uley, until 1918. He went to America, and was educated at Shawano High School, Wisconsin, the University of California, the Wisconsin University, and the University of Missouri.

MR. M. C. KRIEWALDT who has secured his LL.B. degree, and will apply for admission to the Bar in July.

While at the University of Wisconsin he received his B.A. degree in June of 1922. In May of 1923 he returned to Adelaide.

Mr. Kriewaldt has taken a prominent part in University debates. While in Wisconsin he debated for his university against the Mochlin and Washington Universities.

His hobby is the study of modern poetry, of which he is a voracious reader. He plays tennis for recreation in America he wrestled in university inter-collegiate wrestling matches.

Nov. 10-3-26

Professor Thomas Hudson Beale, who fills the chair of engineering at Edinburgh University, has received the honor of knighthood.

Professor Thomas Hudson Beale, who fills the chair of engineering at Edinburgh University, has received the honor of knighthood.

Professor Thomas Hudson Beale, who fills the chair of engineering at Edinburgh University, has received the honor of knighthood.

Workers' Educational Association

ENCOURAGING GROWTH

Mr. G. McRitchie (organizing secretary of the Workers' Educational Association) stated that the arrangements for the present year had been completed.

A new departure in the working of the association would be inaugurated this year as Professor Darnley Naylor would act in the capacity of honorary director on the working educational side.

People frequently asked what the association was, and the reply was that it was an education movement open to all. Its aim was to impart knowledge, build up character, and make good citizens.

This session's free public lectures had been arranged. The lecturers would be Professor Darnley Naylor, the Rev. A. C. Stevens, M.A., Rev. G. T. Siskin, M.A., B.Sc., and Mr. A. E. M. Kirkwood, M.A., M.B.Sc.

Monday—English Literature (Mr. A. G. McDougal, M.A.), Public Speaking, Advanced (Rev. G. E. Hale, B.A.).

Tuesday—Modern World History, "The Growth of Western Civilization" (Francis Paul E. Kirk, M.A., B.D.), Public Speaking, first year (Rev. G. E. Hale, B.A.); Psychology, first year (Mr. A. L. G. Kay, M.A., B.Sc.), Psychology, first year (Mr. A. C. Garnett).

Wednesday—Singing and Music (Mr. E. H. Ward, M.A.), English Literature (Mr. A. E. M. Kirkwood, M.A.), Psychology, second year (Dr. A. C. Garnett).

Thursday—Public Speaking (Rev. G. E. Hale, B.A.), Economics, third year (Mr. A. L. G. Kay, M.A., B.Sc.), Philosophy (Dr. Garnett).

Friday—Public Speaking (Rev. G. E. Hale, B.A.), Economics (Mr. H. L. Ward, B.A.).

Saturday—Public Speaking (Rev. G. E. Hale, B.A.), Economics (Mr. H. L. Ward, B.A.).

Freeling, fortnightly (Mr. R. Crocker, B.A.).

Murray Bridge (Dr. A. C. Garnett).

Perth (Mr. E. G. Biaggini, B.A.).

REG. 10-3-26

FORESTRY SCHOLARSHIPS.

To forward the movement for the dissemination of forestry knowledge Messrs. Smith Wylie & Co., Limited (Importers and Brokers for New Zealand Forest Products, Limited) have announced 100 scholarships yearly for a period of five years, to be known as the Smith-Wylie Forestry Scholarships in the Auckland University College.

The meeting of the Auckland University College Council, the scholarships were accepted, and the thanks of the University College Council were conveyed to the company.