ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEON.

"THE FOURTH OF JULY."

W. Oldham, lecturer in history at inversity of Adelaide, delivered an so on the "Fourth of July" at the Ro-liub luncheon at the Grosvenor on. The chairman of the day was Dr. Lendon, who introduced the speaker, Oldham outlined the historical events

THE SCIENCE CONGRESS.

South Australian Delegates.

South Australian Delegates.

The secretary of the South Australian branch of the Australian Amediaten for the Australian Amediated their intention to attend the intimated their intention to attend the meetings of the Science Congress in Perthnect month:—Professors E. H. Rennip.

Section J.—Mental Science M. X. X. X. Y. Amediated the Amediated their intention to attend the Amediated their intention to a second their intention to the Amediated their the Amediated their intention to the Amediated their intention to the Amediated their intention to the Amediated their intentions the Amediated their intention to the Amediated their intentions the Amediated their intention to the Amediated their intentions the Amediated members are very prominent in the above defer.

PROV. 5-8-726

THE SOUTH AUSTRALAN ORCHESTRA.

A SPLENDID CONCERT.

Citizens and defightfully gay number, it is a state of the concentration of the provided of the concentration of the provided of t

Presidents and Addresses.

Is homomor of being President-leich with the president pres is."

Detion E.—Geography and History—fessor Ernest Scott (Melbourne), "The overies of the Western Australian tt. with especial reference to Dampier D'Entreasteaux."

ful tone dinner in the evening at Whelan's blended, Hotel, Mr. W. H. Dunn, M.P., pr