Dear Fisher,

I am not a member of the International Statistical Institute. Indeed the only statistical Institute of which I am a member is the American Institute of Mathematical Statistics. I am not even a member of the Royal Statistical Society. Living so far away, and having easy access in any case to the J. R. S. S. , I found it no deprivation.

Yours sincerely,

A. C. Aitken

Dear Aitken,

Thanks for your letter. If you would care to be put up for the I.S.I. would you be good enough to fill in data more accessible to you than to me on the enclosed form. As you will see E.B. Wilson of the Harvard Medical School is taking the initiative in the matter.

Yours sincerely,
