

19th July, 1957.

Dear Edgar,

It was more than an ordinary pleasure to me to receive the revised edition of your book on genetics, with the personal dedication you have been kind enough to write. I am sure it deserves to repeat the success of the first edition.

Sincerely yours,