

May 25, 1936

My dear Anderson,

Many thanks for your further note. I don't think I shall do any recalculations, as you don't give me the number for versicolour, and in any case the two stray chromosomes will not matter much, or the plants could not lose or gain them so easily.

Yours sincerely,