

E. W. Barnes

14th November, 1951.

Dear Bishop,

I think you may be interested and perhaps amused at this first effort at a Lay Sermon by one of your former pupils. It is quite short, about ten minutes, and I hope, legible. For my own part, I find unnecessary reading rather a burden, as I hope this will not be to you. Perhaps you will return it when you have finished with it.

Sincerely yours,