

30th December, 1953.

My dear Matteo,

I am just sending you a little letter to thank you for the Christmas card you painted for me with all the angels. You must have done a lot of work and spent a long time on this card, so I should like to thank you heartily for it, as I think it is quite beautiful.

Sincerely yours,