

3 December 1931.

Dr. K. Sisam,
The Clarendon Press,
OXFORD.

REFERENCE P. 9840/K.S.

Dear Dr Sisam:

I have your letter of 30 November on Bailey and Nicholson's book but very much regret that I shall be unable to help you. I have had a good deal of illness this autumn and by the time I am fit again to work, I shall have very heavy arrears to make up.

Thanks for your list of books now ready. I have already ordered "The Legacy of Islam".

Yours sincerely,