December 19, 1938

Dear Cochran,

Thanks for your note on the z approximation. The -1 of my formula was quite empirical, and doubtless based on the 5% level, which was the only one I calculated for the first edition. I hope you will publish your note on it. The deviations from the a simple formula are naturally most troublesomearound the edges, where one end, but not the other, tends to infinity.

Yours sincerely,