

28th. May 1947.

Dear Darlington,

Here is Rao's screed on three factor intercross data as is commonly used with plants, which he has revised in the light of some suggestions Mather made.

I told him he might have to wait until we have a number without too much heavily mathematical material, since it will be necessary to keep a balance in the composition of the journal.

Yours sincerely,