

25th November, 1955.

My dear Gavin,

Thanks for your letter of November 23rd. I do not expect to be much use, but should be happy if it pleases you to put me down on your Advisory Committee for the International Congress of Zoology.

Sincerely yours,