Dear Sir,

I have now received from Dr. Brower the confirmation I needed that Field's observations on Limenitis (insertion p.131) have not been superceded. Two references to Field's early papers may now be added:

- (i) W.L.W. Field (1904). Problems in the genus Basilarchia. Psyche, 11:1-6.
- (ii) W.L.W. Field (1910). The offspring of a captured female, Basilarchia proserpina. Psyche, 17:87-89.

Yours sincerely,
