

May 11, 1937

Dear Dunn,

Many thanks for your letter. The delay in sending the short-tailed stock has caused us no inconvenience whatever, though we shall be glad to have it in due course. I should like particularly to assure you that no work which you want to do ~~in~~ the embryogeny of the factor and its interaction with others could possibly be regarded here as infringing our own researches.

Yours sincerely,