

28th February, 1958.

My dear Egerton,

Many thanks for your letter. I am really quite recovered, though I do not think that too much talking in the evenings really suits me, or too much listening. I hope I shall see you soon at the Dining Club.

Sincerely yours,