

20th January, 1949

My dear Henry,

Many thanks for your letter. I am extremely glad that you think what I have put down may be useful. Of course, what I had in mind was that we should both sign whatever we thought worth publishing on Wright's attack. I am enclosing a carbon copy, and will send the third copy in to Evolution as from us both unless you wish otherwise.

Yours sincerely,