

9th. August 1947.

My dear Henry,

Thanks for your letter. I believe both Darlington and the printers are clear as to where to send proofs at different times. I shall be ordering 225 offprints to add to your 175, so you might keep this letter and enter up this order in my name, if you have to deal with them. I think everything else is straightforward.

Yours sincerely,