Dear Henry,

I have at last heard from the British Council, who seem to have made up their minds that they do want me to go to India, and (as I told you) this will mean starting as soon as possible. I have told them I must be back in England by the end of February. In view of the uncertainty of posts, I think this must mean that I cannot see the Dominion paper till my return. I do hope this will in no way inconvenience you.

Yours sincerely,
