

1 August 1944

My dear Henry,

This is just a note to say how very much I enjoyed my recent stay in Oxford, hunting dominula. It was so good of you to make this opportunity of seeing you and some of your work again. I hope you will manage to make a stay with me in Cambridge before the end of the summer.

Yours sincerely,