

11 July 1944

My dear Henry,

Thanks for your letter. I am so sorry you are so overrun with work just now. I will book the 24th <sup>or</sup> provisionally for coming down to Oxford, but I hope I shall also manage to see you on the 21st, if you can possibly spare a few minutes.

Yours sincerely,