

December 11, 1942

My dear Henry,

Thanks for your letter of Wednesday. So far as I am concerned it would suit excellently for me to visit Oxford on the 22nd instead of the 15th. I had been hoping, however, that I could get you down here for the week-end at or about the time of the February ^a meetings. Would it be too soon to suggest your visiting Harpenden the week following that now proposed for my coming to Oxford? I mention this because you are so considerate to a guest, that I feel I take a great deal of your time.

Yours sincerely,