

April 17, 1941

My dear Henry,

We are so glad to know for certain that you will be able to spend the next week-end here, as we had hoped. It will be particularly interesting to have the Callimorpha specimens to examine.

Mice have continued to be extremely sparse in our traps, even though the weather is now warm.

Yours sincerely,