Sir Ronald Fisher, F.R.S.,
44 Storey's Way,
Cambridge.

My dear Ron,

Thank you so much for your letter. I am glad to hear you are bringing Mourant as a guest to the Anniversary Dinner. I am bringing Sheppard. I will ask if it is possible for us to sit at the same table, that would be very nice. I suspect, however, that, as a medalist, you and your guest may be at some predetermined place. However, whatever happens, we shall be able to meet that night.

Ever yours,

Yes, I am afraid poor Rob will not be there.
