

January 12, 1939

Dear Mr Garwood,

Thank you for letting me know of your proposed publication in Biometrika, which is a journal I do not often see. I am sorry you did not discuss the matter with me when you first thought of extending my table, since there are a number of points worth attending to if the extension table is to be made as useful as possible.

Yours sincerely,