

5 May 1931.

Prof. J.E.S. Haldane,
John Innes Hort. Inst.,
Postyn Road,
Merton Park,
S.W. 19.

Dear Haldane,

I enclose herewith your M.S., with a typescript for revision and return. The typist seems to have dropped out a word occasionally. Reading it in typescript I like it even better than before.

I suppose you would not have time during the next fortnight, before I go to the States, to come down here one day to lunch and see my chicks. If so I should be delighted. I hope to get Huxley down one day.

Yours sincerely,