

January 19, 1939

Dear Haldane,

If you personally want to drop the collection of medical inspection data without further approaching the L.C.C., I can defer to your wishes without going to the trouble of calling a special meeting. If, on the other hand, you want to continue it, I should think the first step would be to see if Thompson has any real difficulty in carrying out what I suggest.

Yours sincerely,