

11th February, 1953.

W.K.

Dear Professor/Hancock,

I am enclosing a copy of the Eddington Memorial Lecture, "Creative Aspects of Natural Law" which I mentioned to you yesterday. You will see that I stress the emergence of indeterminism in Physics as giving a new framework in which this strain of biological speculation may more fairly be judged.

Yours sincerely,