

wrote to
Prof Hodge
27-4-42

The Thatched Cottage
Clarendon Place
Cambridge
April 11.

Dear Foster,

(Prof. J. V. D.)

I saw Hodge the other day;
he is one of the secretaries of the Camb.
Phil. Soc. He suggests that you should write to him of the Philosophical Library & call attention to the desirability that the C.P.S. should take the Annals.
I think I mentioned something like this in my last letter & you may have already done so, but anyhow a suggestion will be sympathetically considered.

You did not say whether the Roy.
Soc. had refused your request for a grant or whether they just hadn't answered. In the latter case I should write again to the secretaries. The fund,

I believe, is far from being used up;
though I gather, this fine remains second hand chips!

Yours sincerely
Herold Jefferys.