

11 July 1933.

A.G. Lowndes, Esq.,
Marlborough College,
Wilts.

My dear Lowndes:

Very many thanks for the maps and book, which have arrived here safely. I was interested in the article on petrology, though as I know nothing of the subject, and still less of the art of teaching, I would not venture an opinion.

Yours sincerely,

I hope to get you to stay a night with my sister and Miss Alice in our village from Shire. Their house at the head of Lock Riddan.
