

April 30, 1937

Dear Sir James,

On receiving your wire last week I sent the Times a letter, but judge that they now consider the subject to be closed. I was very glad to have your letter of April 22nd telling me how things stand.

Yours sincerely,