

5 June 1943

My dear Mother,

I am so glad to have your suggestion about the possibly lower seed-fertility of thrums. It is quite the most promising idea I have had on the subject, and seems likely to fit the facts well.

Should it not be demonstrable merely by counting ~~the~~ weighing the seed output of biggish groups of pin and thrum grown au naturel?

Yours sincerely,