

13th January, 1955.

My dear Walter,

Thanks for your letter and card from Mexico, both of which I received on my return from India. Things went very well there, and I was lucky enough to see some of the southern end of the peninsula which is much nicer country than ^{the} ~~the~~ northern plain. I am starting wrestling with a book essentially on the logic of statistical reasoning.

Sincerely yours,