

11th. February 1948.

Dear Race,

Thanks for your note. I shall be very happy to join you for lunch before your Congregation. I shall be going on to the Senate House myself to put in a vote about Latin, so perhaps I shall see you invested, or whatever they do to you.

Yours sincerely,