

27th August, 1954.

Dear Dr. Richey,

As one of your many friends and colleagues, I am glad of the opportunity to do honour to the occasion of your retirement from the United States Department of Agriculture, and to express in terms, however few and inadequate, my esteem for your outstanding contribution to the understanding and practice of corn improvement.

Believe me,

Yours truly,

R. A. Fisher.