

September 17th, 1935

Dear Sir Humphry,

I have just received your letter of September 14th, proposing the establishment of a Bureau for Human Heredity in association with Dr Bell at the Galton Laboratory. I may say that, after discussing the matter with Dr Bell, I am strongly in favour of the project and will recommend the College authorities to authorise the use of the space required.

Yours sincerely,

*for enclosure
see letter to Mrs Hodgson
Sept 13th 1935*