

19th. May 1950

Dear Slater,

Thanks for your letter. It is most enterprising of Rothschild to think up Dr. Blaxter as possibly capable of being interested in milk yields and genotypes.

All being well, I hope to come up to London on Friday, 9th. June, and expect I should be able to get to your office in Dean's Yard by 11.30 a.m.

Yours sincerely,